SHRUG

Twilight? Miss Twilight;
it's Minuette, we really do need to talk to you. It's about.
it's about the Doctor

Oh, Minuette, I didn't notice you there... If you're here too, it's the only reason I'm willing to talk to him.

That makes perfect sense. Knowing the circumstances, I wouldn't do this if it weren't necessary. Will you hear us out?

You have one chance to speak but if I don't like what you say-
You'll listen anyway

Alright, I'll do my best,
but it's going to be hard...

If I am only allowed one chance to explain myself, what I did to you, while initially invited by your own actions, went far beyond what was acceptable. What I did to you was cruel, dragging your self-esteem through the mud after you opened your home to me, and then being the unknowing deliverypony of that vile piece of work that caused you to fall over the edge.

When I heard what happened in the aftermath I was torn. You did not deserve what happened in the aftermath, but I needed you to hurt, because if you hurt, then The Doctor will do whatever is in his power to stop it, or avenge you. I needed his attention on me, so he won't go after you, or my girls.

You're right, what you did was awful, but... part of it was because I didn't put my hoof down, and-
Now, now. Don't blame yourself for being victimized. Life is complex, but this was never your fault. It doesn't mean we don't need your help now, but you didn't cause any of this.

I'm far older than you Twilight, and I should have known better, so this one is on me. It's no genocide, but it's still pretty terrible.

Excuse me, 'genocide'?
Your 'girls'? There seems to be a lot I don't know here.

Well, do you want it fast and sorta painful, or the slow... talkative route?

Please just make it quick.
She asked for it.

Okay. Well. Yes. You are complicated and dangerous. Consider me informed now. Had I known all of that before, I never would have made that offer. So you said earlier this was about The Doctor? I'm listening.

Ok Firstly, YOU have a hard head.
But it's less about him, and more about... you.
I need someone who... knows magic, is connected to the Elements of Harmony, and can easily learn a language that's hundreds of billions of years old, and can translate the drunken notes of one of my old students... someone you know very well.

I let the then beardless shit study the Elements of Harmony in depth, and thinking himself Clover's match, decided to put his notes down in arcane calligraphy and gallifreyan.

We need you to translate the great Starswirl's notes, Twilight. We're good, but we're not good enough. If we have this information, we're one step closer to curing the Doctor.

Did you say
Star Swirl?!

We can see your port. Somebody get this man some goggles or something

Neo, do you ever miss Ditzy and the kids?
I understand that everyone is more focused on helping Doc but, does it ever get lonely without the rest of your 'family'?
Neeeeo!!
I missed your hugs and everything about you.

So, Neo, how is it having a physical body at last?

What's your opinion about having your own physical body, Neo?

razoolio asked
Hey neo! Welcome to the physical world! How do you feel, or if you feel anything at all?

Looking good Neo! How's the new body feel?

reggiebunny asked:
It's ALIVE! But no, seriously, welcome back to the physical world, Neo! What's the first thing you're going to do in your new body?

So, Neo, how does it feel to have a body again? Is there anything this one can do that you couldn't before?

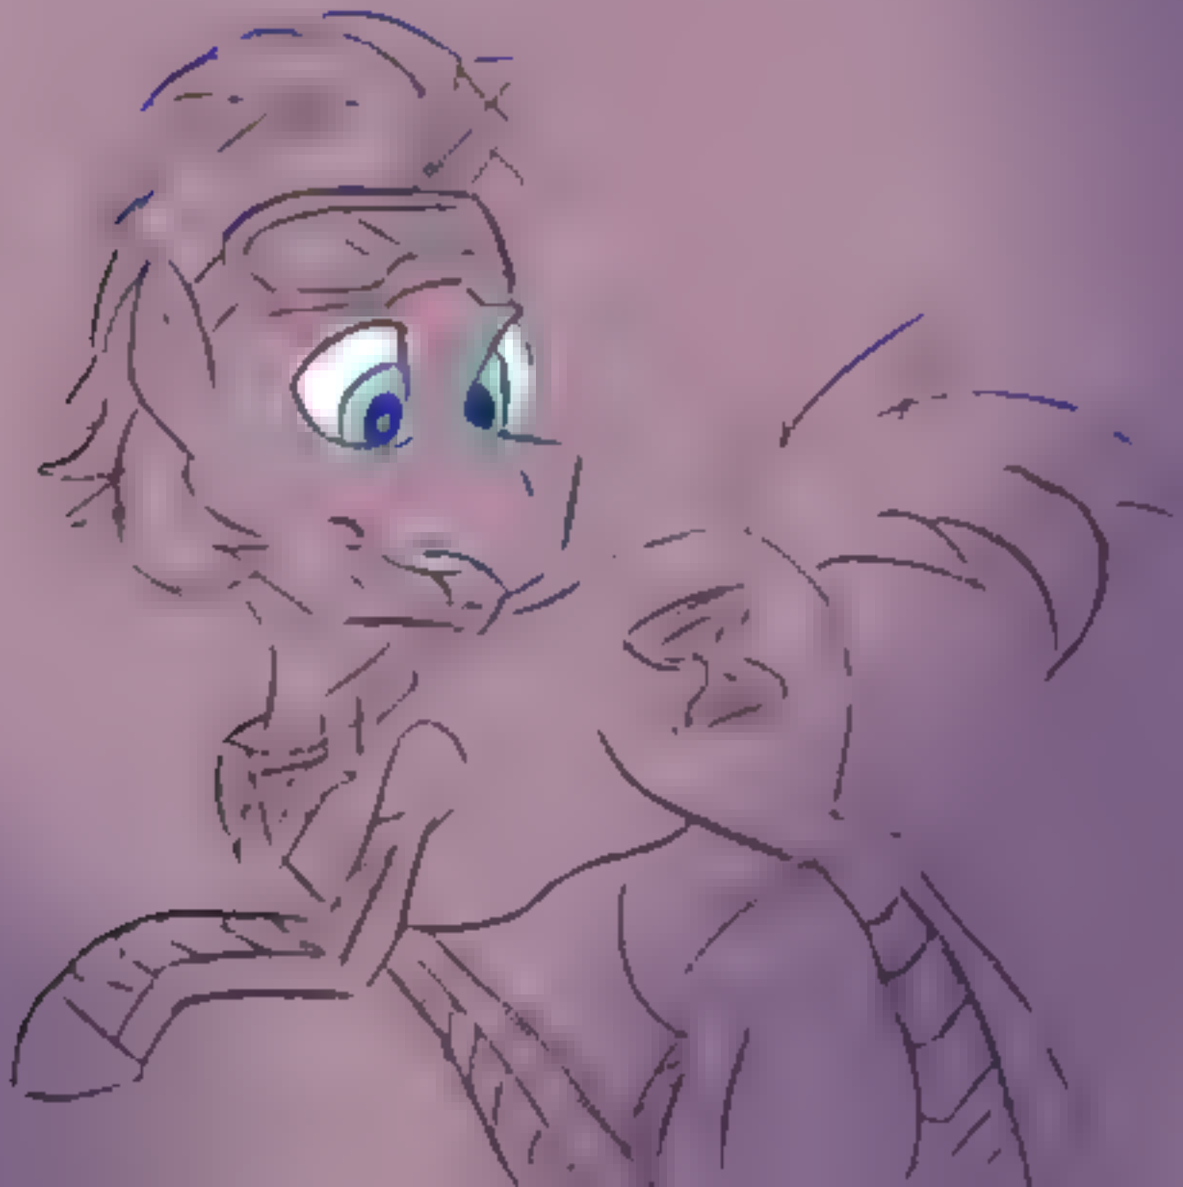
Welcome back Neo. You got a body back, just like old times. Hows it feel?

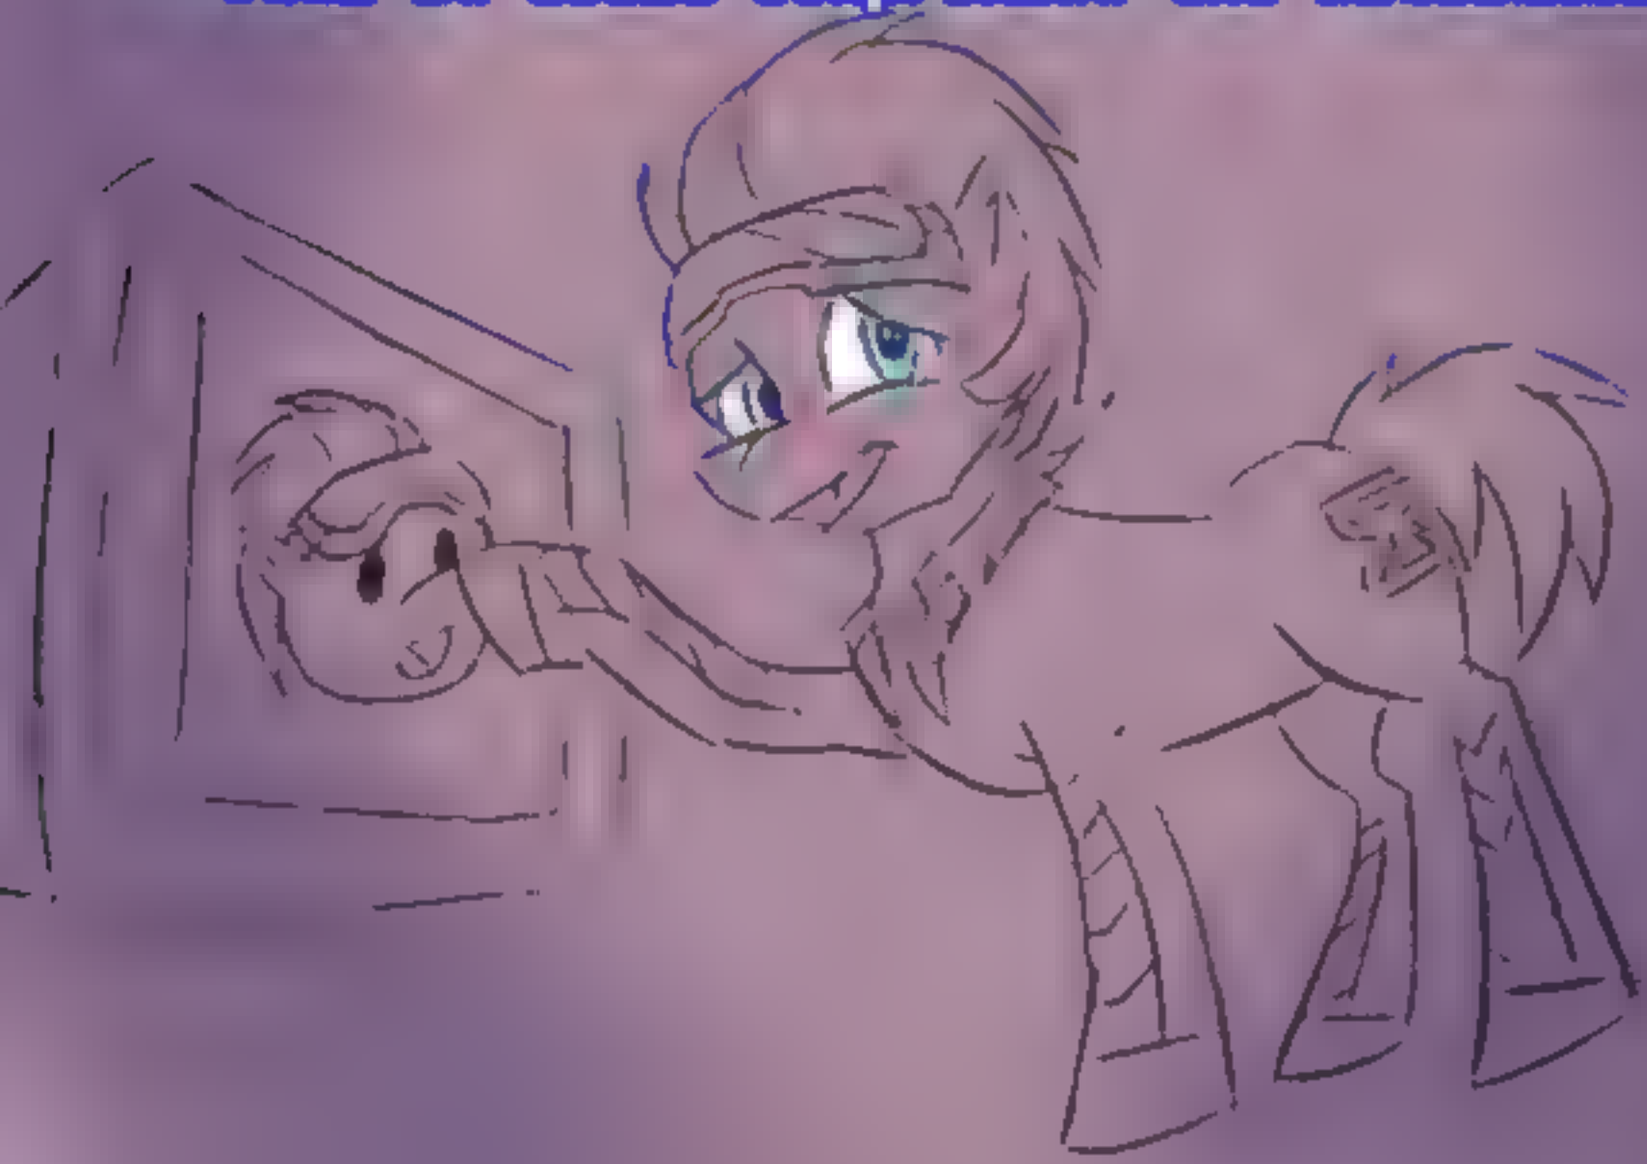
arcanehowitzer asked:
Neo, Welcome back to the physical world. Hopefully this body lasts longer than

This is amazing, so much better than the body I built! I- I can really FEEL Derpy's hug, the warmth and the pressure, I feel more real than I've ever felt! My senses might not be on par with a normal pony's but I have senses none the less!



Anonymous asked:
So, does this mean Neo is no longer in the sonic or computer? Or does this count as another copy of his programming? How does this work?

I'm in both of them with the data updating from my main source at the same time, and I send data back through all three as well, I'm able to keep up with any new information obtained through any of my selves. The only one not getting these updates is the sonic the Doctor has because I feel it would compromise the situation.



froqqo-friend asked
Neo, have you been able to access the archive on the Doctor from the TARDIS?

I have almost all of it! Some of it seems to be corrupted but with someone analyzing it, we can get a better picture of what's going on with him. Lucky is the least connected to the Doctor so he's in charge of that to avoid emotional triggers.

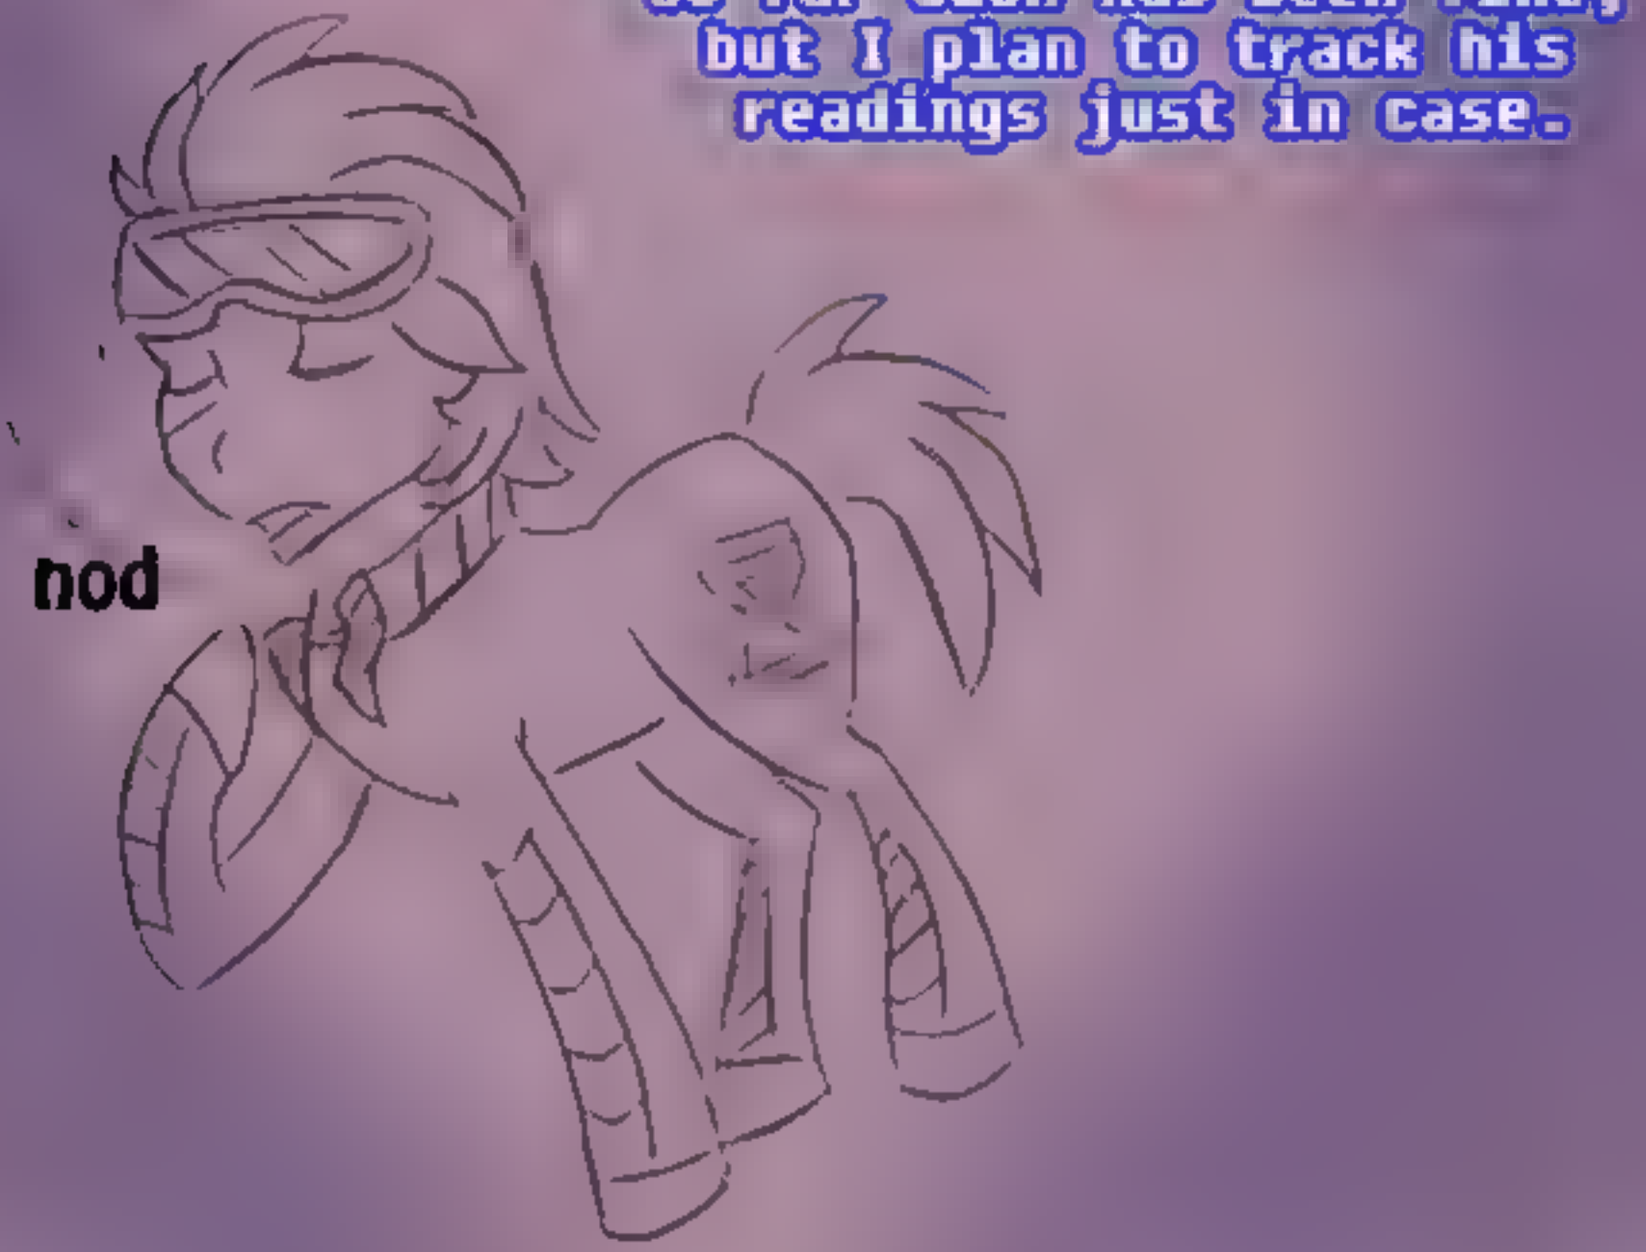
chaoticcolaa asked:

Do you think there may be a way for Neo to extract our memories and somehow bestow them to the Doctor?

I can connect if someone were to provide me a link to whatever archives you might have about The Doctor.

Anonymous asked

Neo, do you trust that Jack won't try to hurt or take you out because he reminds you of the Doctor? You do have a different personality, but perhaps your resemblance, having memories of the Doctor, and being physically present might trigger Jack to act on his negative thoughts and tendencies if the curse kicks in?



Anonymous said
When Twilight's friends were infected, she used a memory spell to cure them sure, but before that she was infected, too She snapped herself out of it by reading her letters about her friends/their adventures in Ponyville What if we gather a collection of strong triggers of the Doctor's memory and send it to him? Could be an avenue worth exploring
You really think that'll work? He was wearing his tie before, after all. I'm not sure what exactly to get for him though, what things are going to be important to him that aren't already on the TARDIS...?

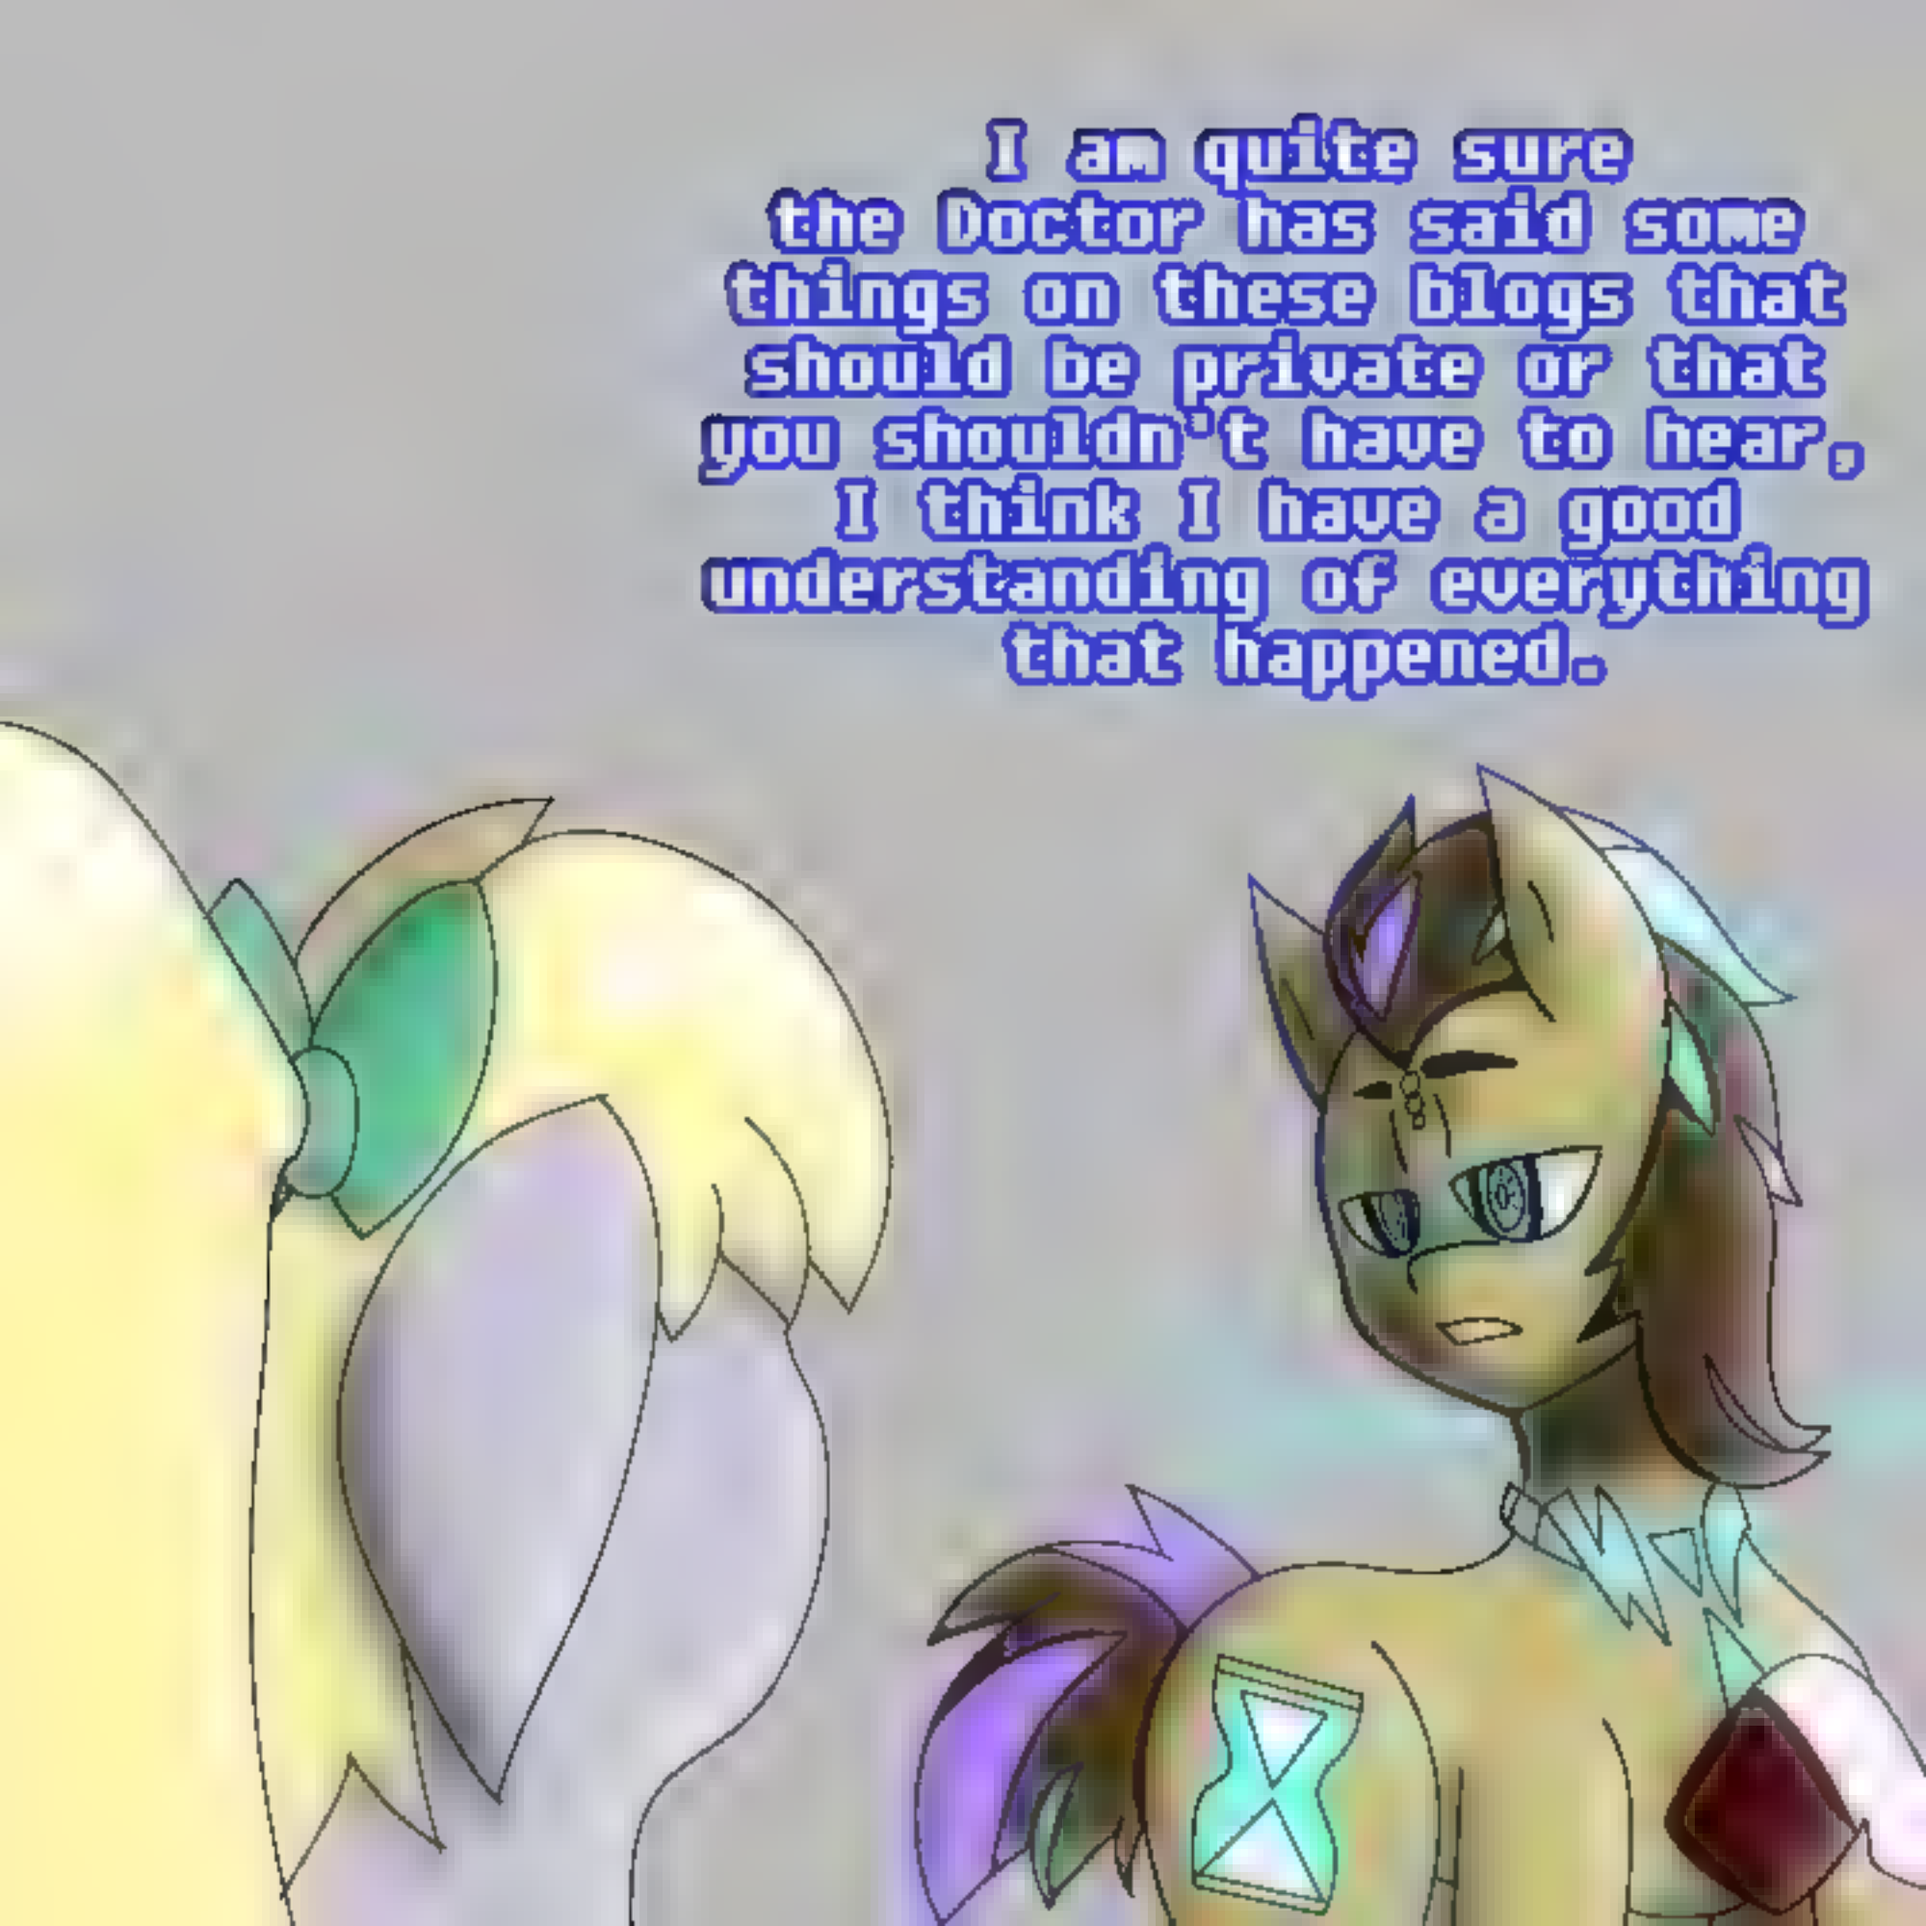
froqqo-friend asked

Derpy, do you still have access to the blog you started back when you were traveling with the Doctor? If you do it could be a source of good memories of the Doctor, if you aren't too embarrassed to share it with everyone that is

The blog! Yeah! Neo should be able to access it just fine!

Then perhaps wecan look through it to see if anything stood out. The askers are welcome to help too? I need a day to adjust to my body anyway, we can use that time to research.

Are you sure I shouldn't look over everything?



I am quite sure the Doctor has said some things on these blogs that should be private or that you shouldn't have to hear. I think I have a good understanding of everything that happened.

So that means we have even more memories to share with him, right?
I think so. Which means we now have access to memories from many various parts of his lives.

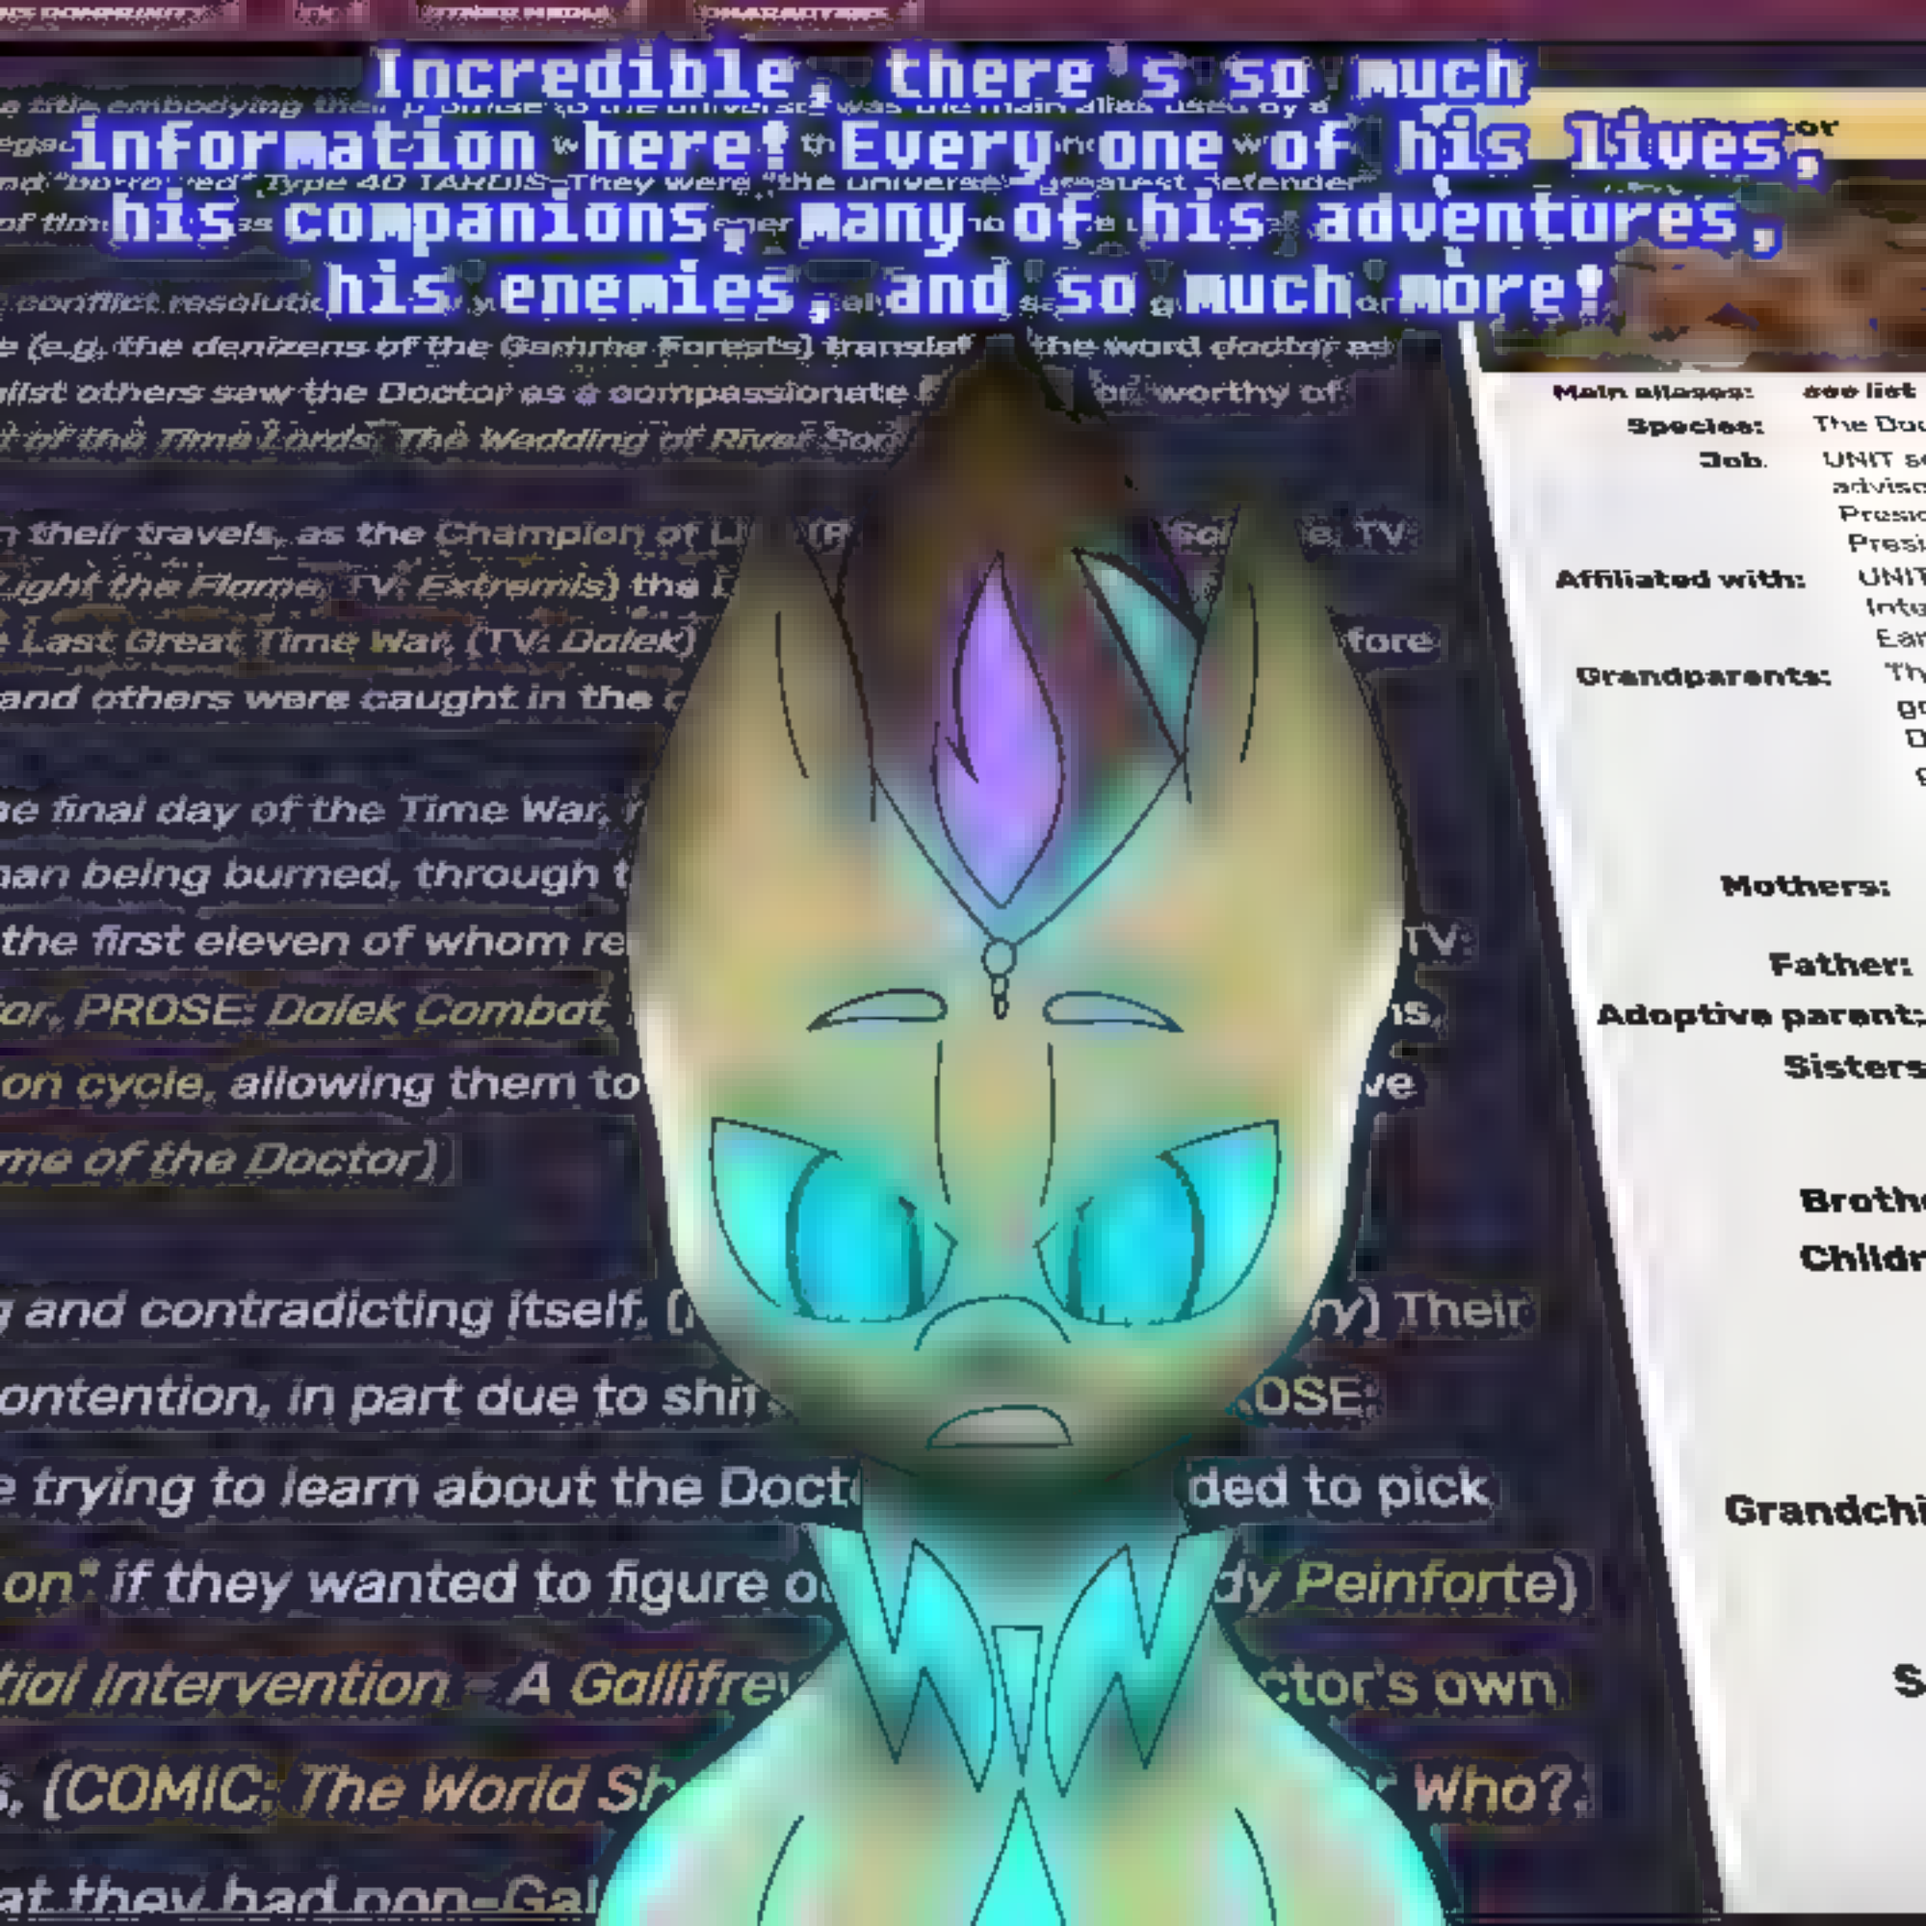
I think the reason the discorded curse has dug so deep into him is because he has almost 10,000 years of memories and multiple lives. It's almost impossible for any one being to share those with him.

Anonymous submitted to askdiscordwhooves:

One link to our collection of the Doctor's memories coming right up!

https://tardis.fandom.com/wiki/The_Doctor

Oh, you actually sent the link! Let's see here...



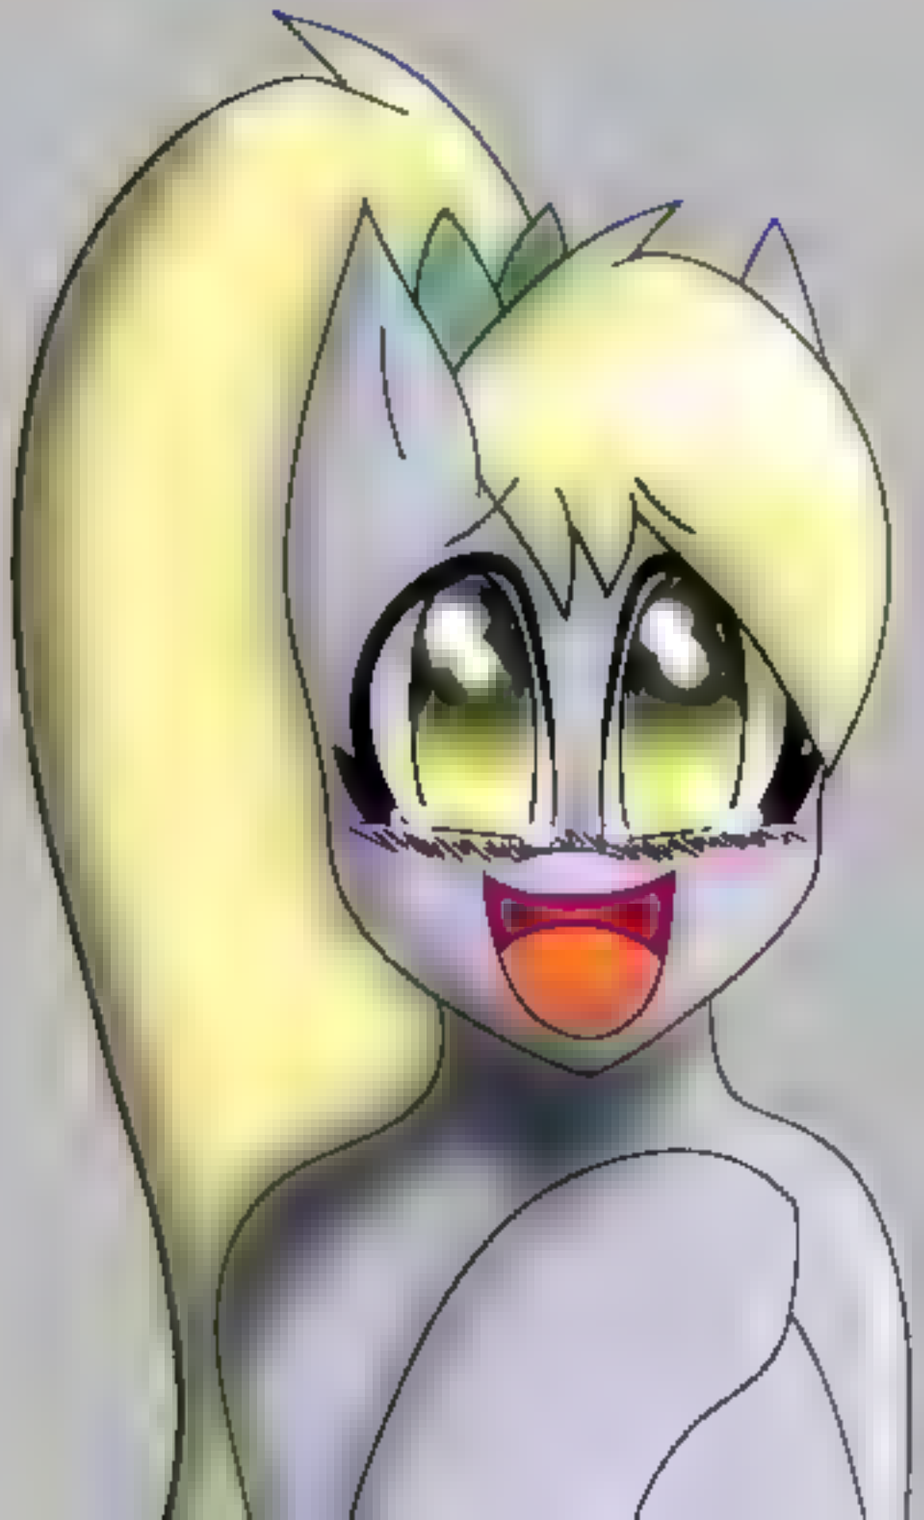
Incredible, there's so much information here! Every one of his lives, his companions, many of his adventures, his enemies, and so much more!

I have no idea how you managed to archive all this information about the Doctor. I would say it's almost disturbing, were it not so impressive.

Still, this will be insanely useful, this is probably the best way I can get all of your memories of the Doctor in one place.

The more we get, the more hopeful I am that we can save him!
The curse is strong, but we can be stronger.

Thank you all so much!!



THE NEXT DAY...

Anonymous asked:

Jack, the Doctor is using Neosurgeon to monitor his levels of the Discord curse energy, does that help you feel better about keeping a watch on him/any potential danger he may cause that you might have to deal with? For that matter, would you feel comfortable being monitored in a similar way? Might prevent the need for your more .. drastic failsafe

While I'm relieved to hear he's being monitored, I still don't trust him in the slightest. But... It does sound like a good idea to track myself.

I can easily make you one once I've finished inventing it at the lab. I'm almost done with it.

kingtigerstar-blog asked:

Two questions for Captain Jack. First one, do you miss the former members of Torchwood? Like Ianto? And Gwen?
Second, what will happen to you if the timeline is fixed? Will you go back to Cardiff?

...I don't like talking about the old Torchwood. Just before I came here, I was doing my best to stay far away from Cardiff, and I don't plan on going back. Going back to that universe? Yes, of course.

93chowo asked:

Do you have any clues on Discord or his whereabouts? Also be careful because he might be spying on you and knowing Discord he surely has someth ng mischievous planned to foil your p.ans.

We can track where he's been, but not where he is. He leaves a trail behind him but has no discernable presence in space and time where he exists.

I'm not saying that you all should focus on stopping the unicorn killer, I'm just saying aren't you worried that the unicorn killer might target your daughters? I mean, they're both unicorns and it's only a matter of time until the ki er comes to canterlot.

I appreciate the concern but The Harvestor has NEVER killed foals, and started in Canterlot but has clearly moved on from there.

We've talked about using ours and Jack's memories of the Doctor to combat the curse somehow, right? So, wouldn't the reverse be possible as well? We could potentially use our memories of Jack to combat the curse in him too, right?

That link I was sent earlier had information on Jack too, I can test it on him?

I've been a guinea pig enough that I'm not even concerned, go right ahead. Although, is it wrong that I'm a little turned on that I seem to have stalkers?

Anonymous asked

Okay, is anyone else curious about the shipments that Mr Blue has been sending? Where and how is he able to get this tech? Some of it is extremely specific, and some of it probably shouldn't even exist in this universe

It's better not to question it, we have a very generous and intelligent benifactor and that's all anyone needs to know.

Anonymous asked

So many lines between the Doctor and Torchwood... things could certainly get complicated if not everyone is completely open with what they choose to share...

I know the secrecy is a big risk but I feel it's even riskier to reveal what we're all doing and who's working with who. All that matters is fixing this problem. Once it's over, the ends will justify the means.

Everypony! I have something important!

I'm going to need your help.

What is it, Twilight?
Your eyes are practically on fire!

I've gotten new research in regards to the Elements of Harmony, and it's given me an idea.

You see, I thought with my friends gone, the elements were destroyed with them.... however...

Anonymous asked:
Could finding new exemplary individuals who embody the virtues of friendship to the ..unassigned.. Elements of Harmony be what we're missing in all of this? You'll need every advantage possible to combat the encroaching darkness that plagues this universe, so it might be prudent to scout out possible candidates in the interim
I may have lost my friends, but there's a good chance the elements have found new hosts, or are looking for hosts. We need to figure out who they are to defeat Discord.!

How will that be done?
We need to find ponies who embody Kindness, Generosity, Laughter, Loyalty, and...

I need to help Applejack to see what happened to Honesty.

I've been so scared to confront her, the last time we spoke she blamed me for everything going wrong, and told me she didn't want to see me again.

But I need to do this... Applejack is my friend and even if she doesn't want me, she needs me...
Torchwood is here to help.

I have a plan for how to talk to her but I can't do this alone, so if just a couple of ponies come with me to support me, I'd really appreciate it.

I'll come along. I want to help. Applejack was such a admirable pony... She shouldn't be hurting alone like that.
I will go as well, it would be good for me to get a reading on her to gather data on these elements.

¡PLUT!

Hohoh about
that's right

Applejack!

WHAT ARE YOU DOIN' HERE, TWILIGHT?
I THOUGHT I MADE MYSELF CLEAR!

And who's the little crew? You findin' new friends to neglect now?

We're just here to help you Applejack
Believe it or not ponies have been worried about you

There aint ouchin you can do to help. Farms worthless granny's dead Big Macs workin in Appleoosa to keep us afloat, theres murderers about Ponyville is a dump you want me to go on? And maybe most of that wouldnt be a problem if you'd just paid attention, or at least stayed loyal to your duties as a princess.

That's not fair
WHAT'S NOT FAIR IS THE PRINCESS OF FRIENDSHIP (YOU) DON'T EVEN SEE HER FRIEND WAS A PSYCHO! YOU MIGHT NOT LIKE IT, BUT IT'S THE HONEST TRUTH!

Twilight? You okay?

Just because you're hurting, Applejack, it doesn't give you the right to hurt everypony else
This isn't you

I'm scared for you and Applebloom... You always loved your family and I don't know why you'd hurt any of them. You can't honestly feel like what you've been doing is okay... can you?

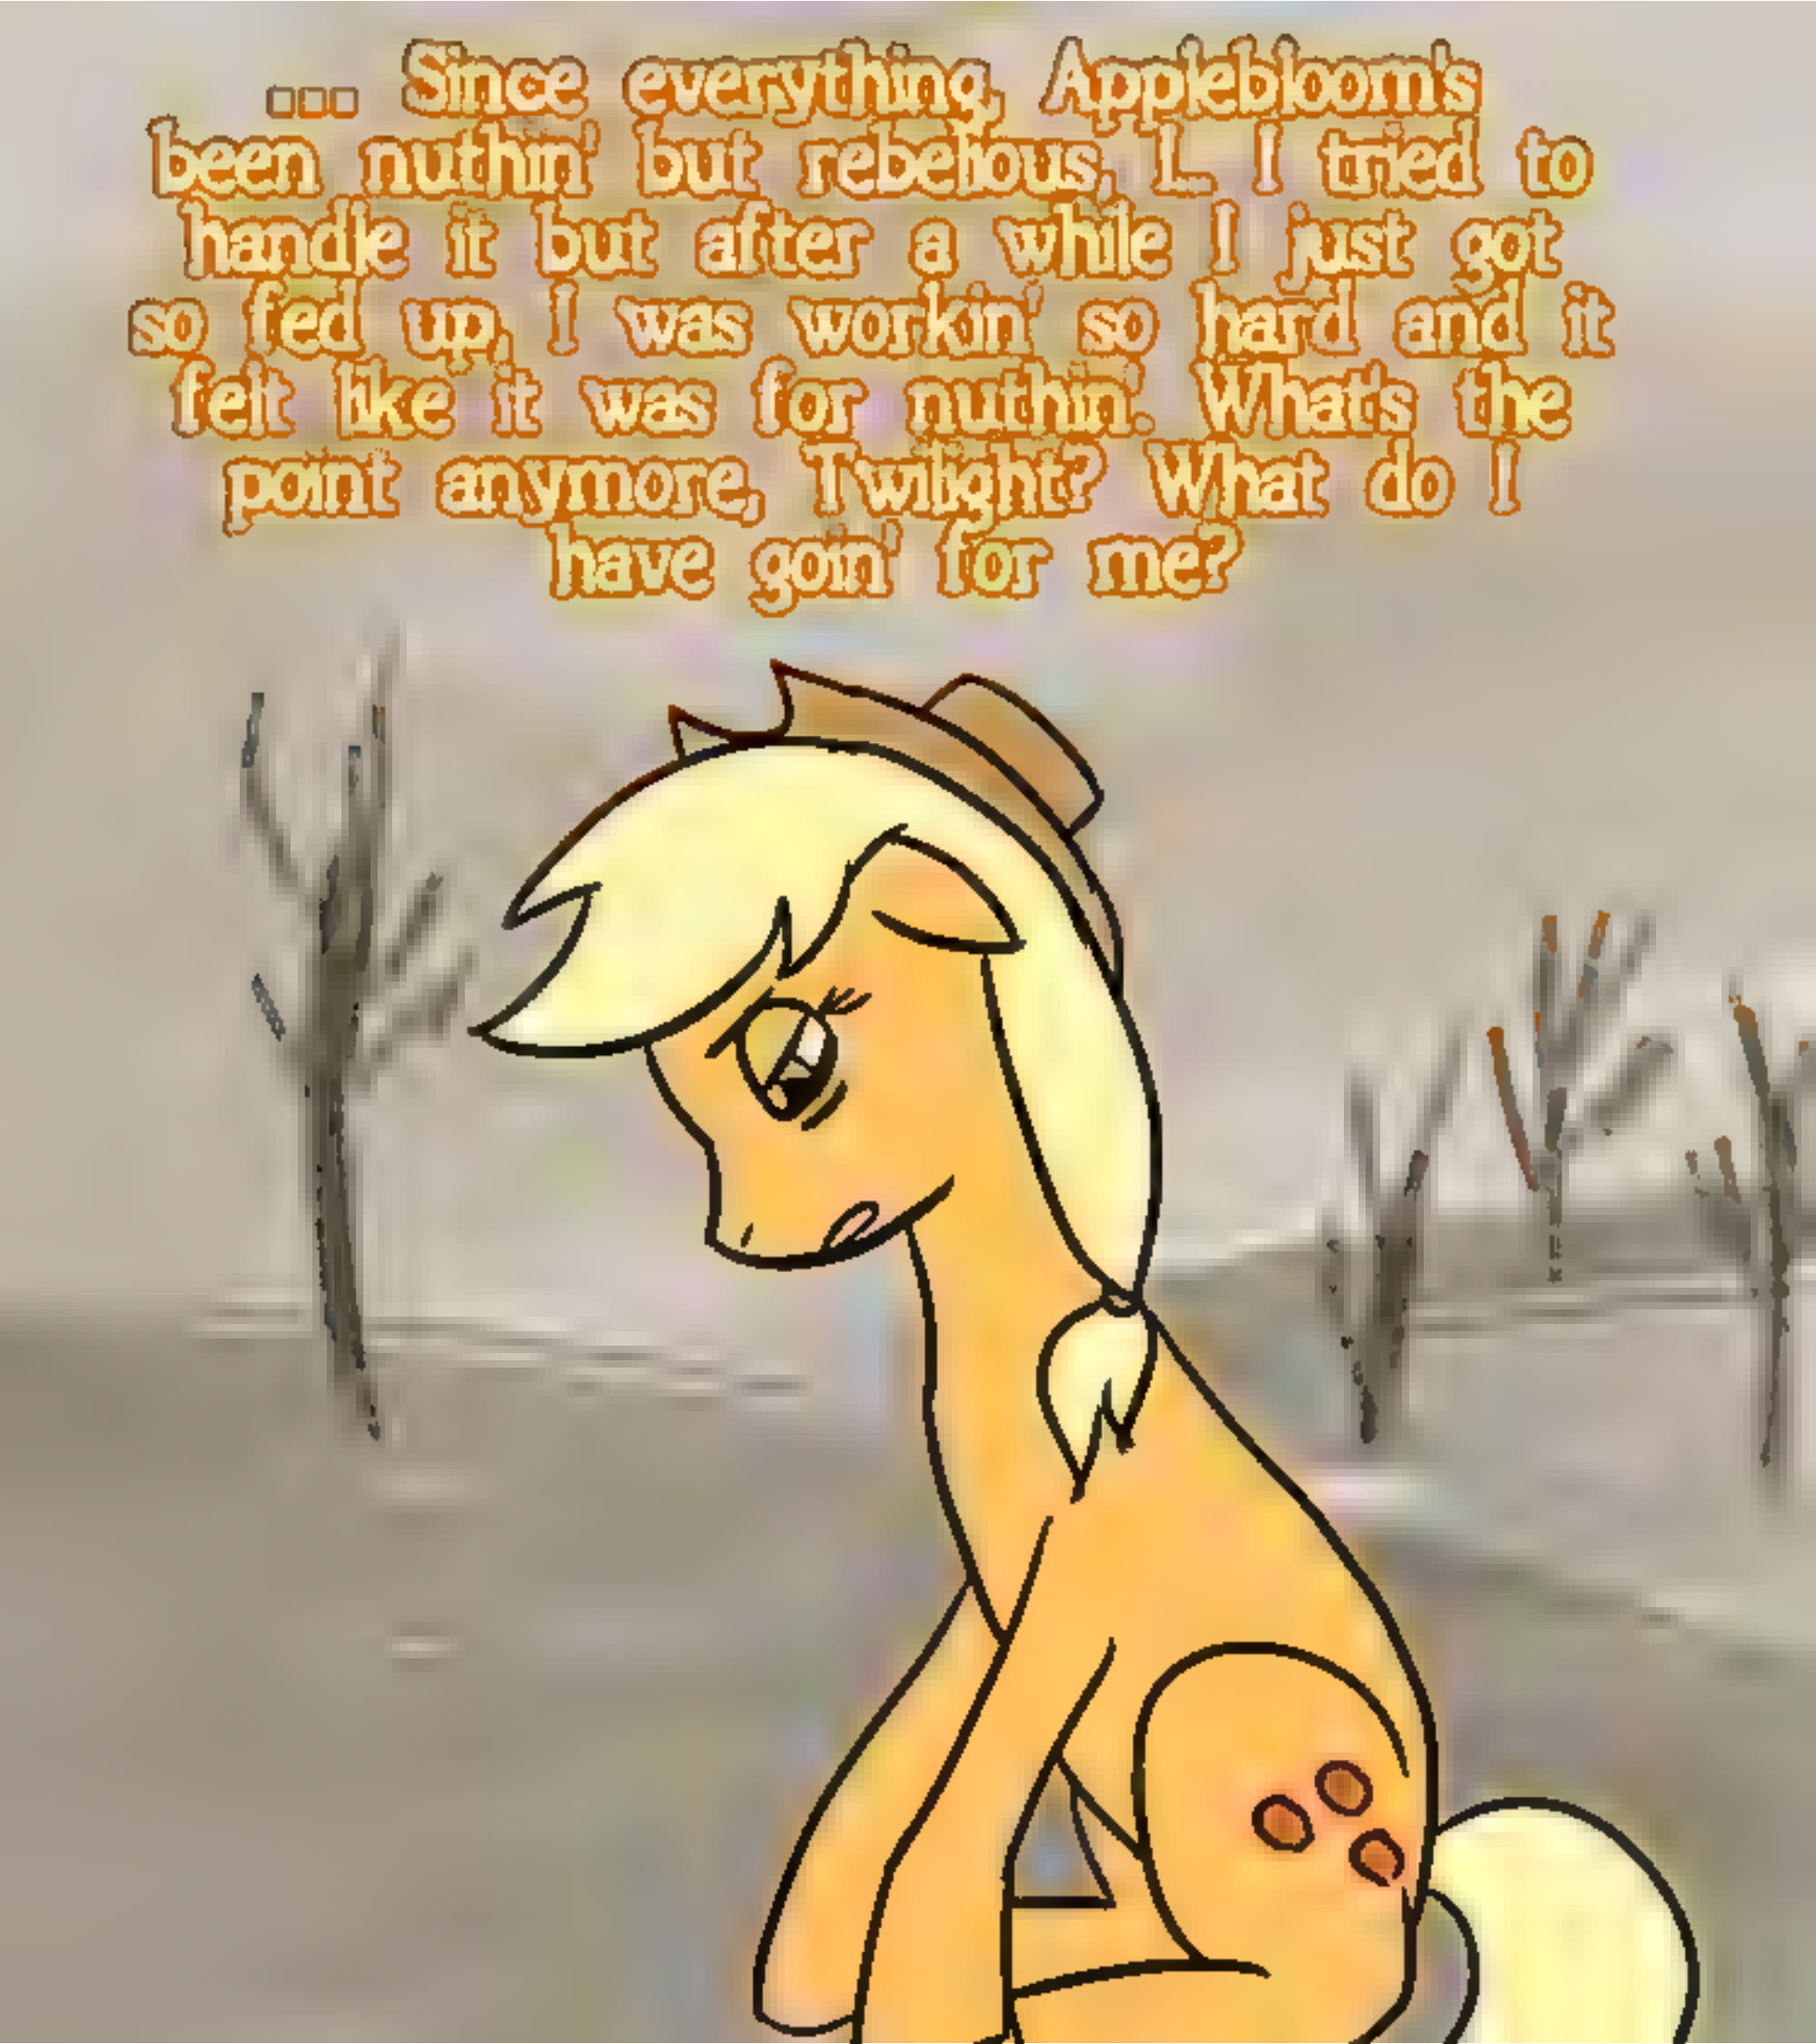
Please listen, Applejack, I-

Twilight, I wouldn't recommend trying to reason with her when she is this intoxicated. Give me a moment.

You stay away from me!

Ohh my head..
I cleared the alcohol out of your system, unfortunately you still get the hangover.

Applejack... I'm sorry... I know I've been a coward and a horrible friend. I haven't been there for you because I didn't know how to deal with your drinking. Things have gotten out of control and maybe they wouldn't have been this bad if I had been more supportive.



... Since everything Applebloom's been nuthin' but rebelious, I... I tried to handle it but after a while I just got so fed up, I was workin' so hard and it felt like it was for nuthin. What's the point anymore, Twilight? What do I have goin' for me?

I know how you feel, we both stopped doing our part in our own ways... And nopony is expecting you to hold it all together after everything... I know you pride yourself on doing things on your own but it's okay to ask for help, Applejack...

Why now?
Why let it get this bad before doin' anythin' about it? What can you even do?

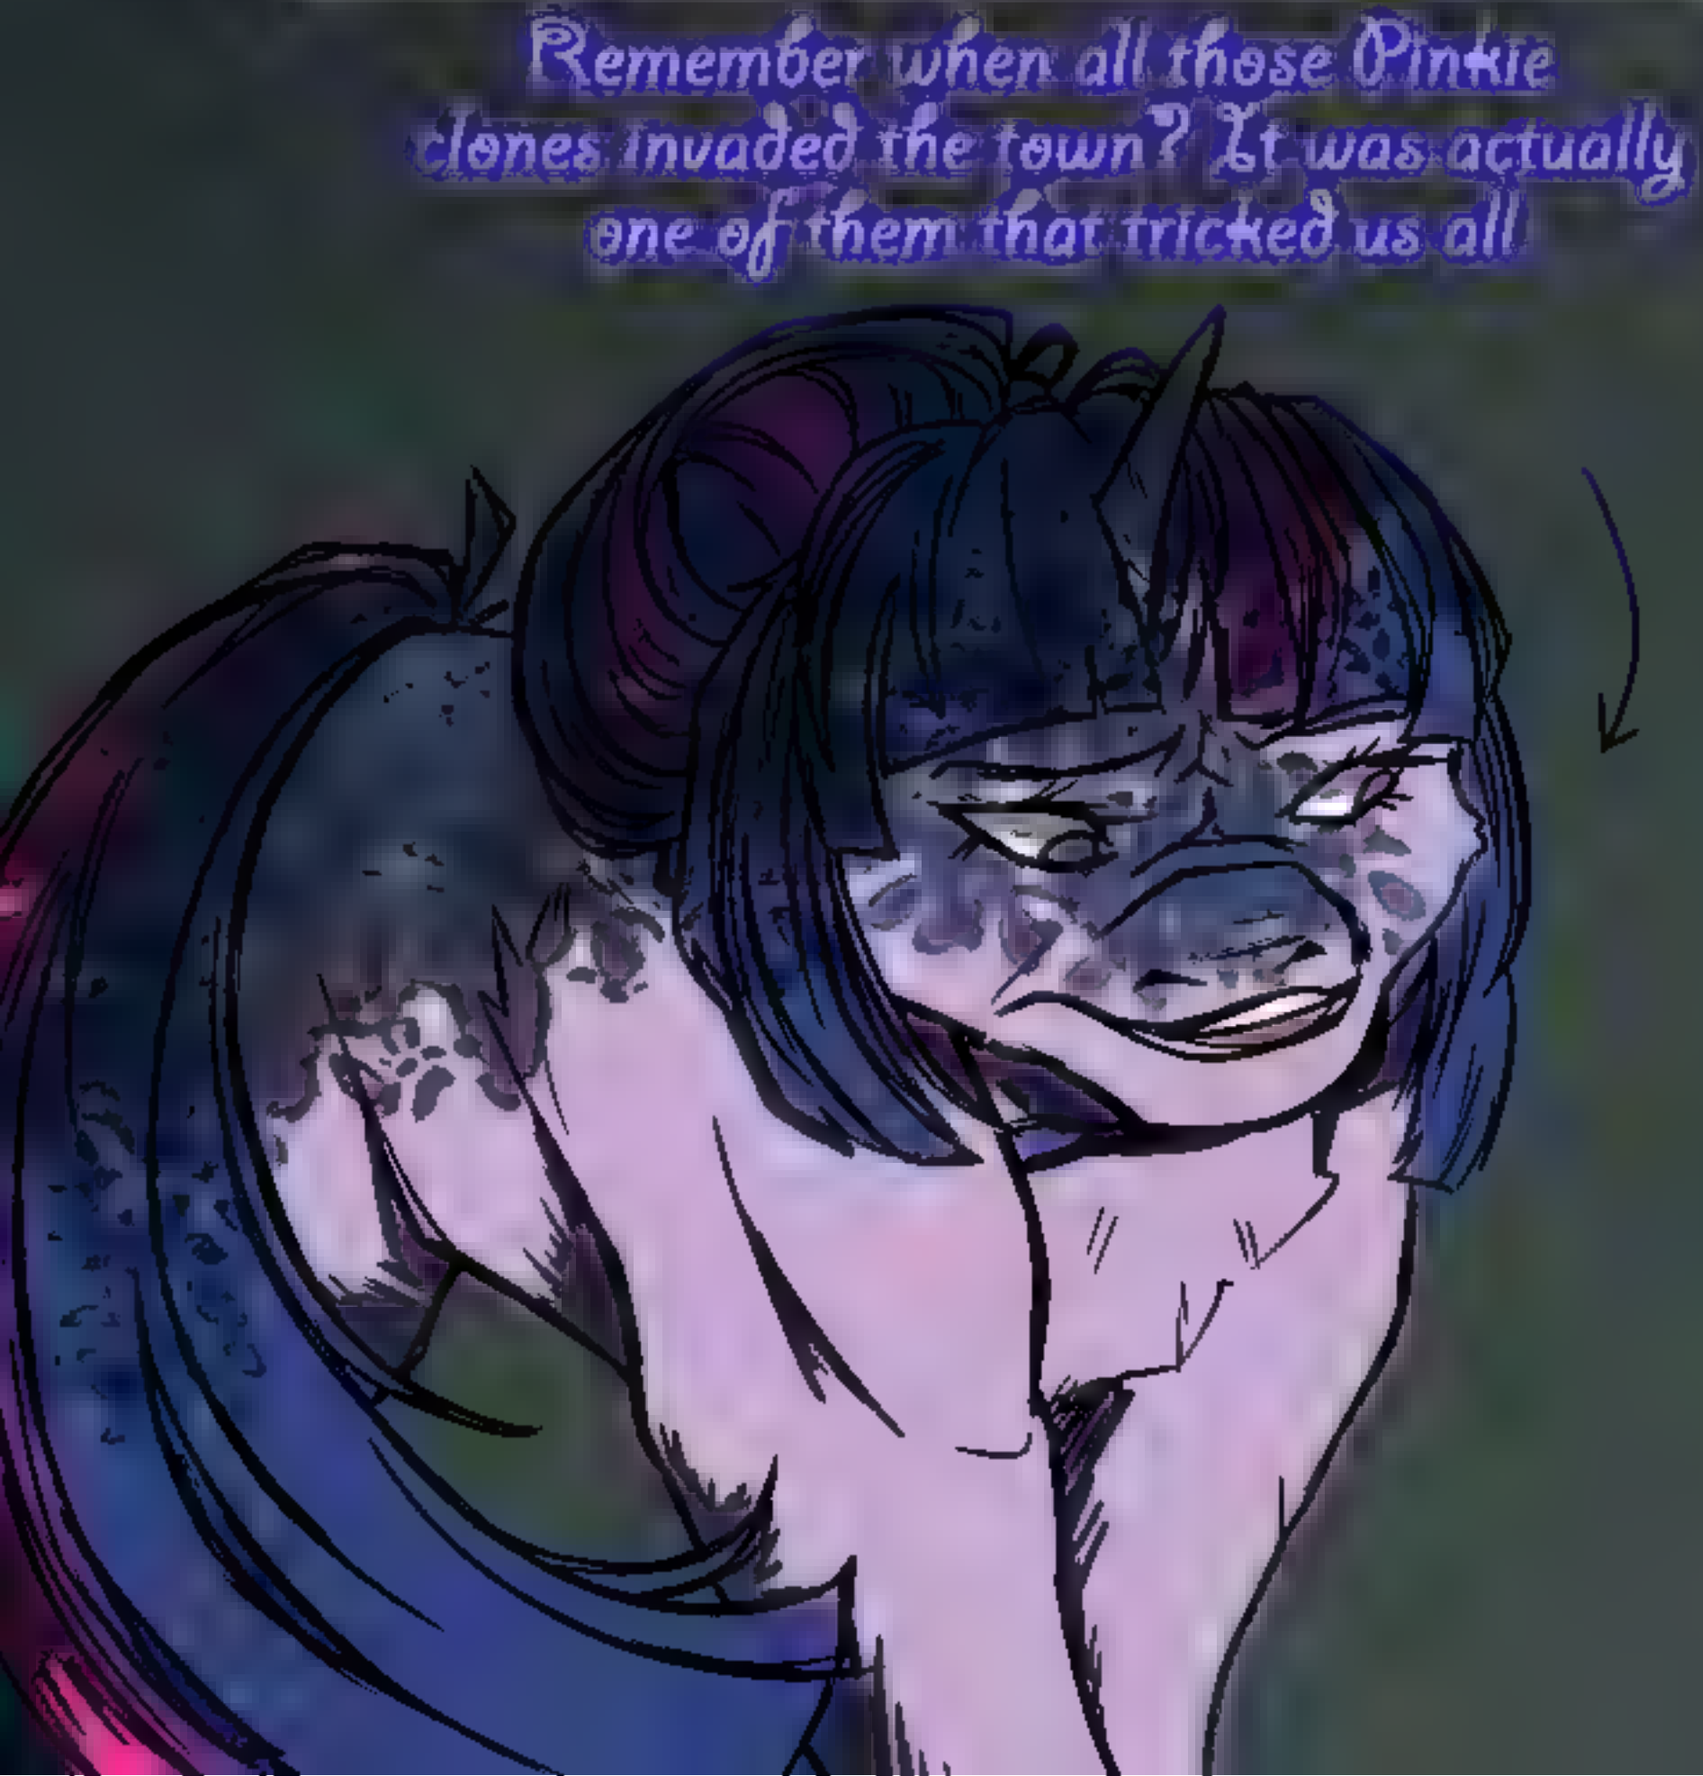
...I found out things weren't what they seemed...
You'll probably be even more angry at me but you were always honest and I owe you honesty in return

It wasn't really Pinkie that did those horrible things

What? What do you mean?

Anonymous asked

You're going to have to tell AJ the truth about that day involving the Mirror Pool And you know she's not going to be happy.



Wait, so that means you-
you sent Pinkie-

Into the mirror pool yes and
I'm sorry to say she didn't make it through alive.

So this really was because of you?!

I I

No! It wasn't! Twilight was manipulated by an evil force, by Discord! He would have found a way to ruin everything one way or another!

How was this supposed to make me feel any better? Sure, Pinkie didn't betray us, but we still lost everypony all the same!

Maybe I'm not the best pony to help you, but I'm going to try, and I think I know who can really help you. Someopony who's much closer to you than I.

What?

I can't believe you lied in your letters.. But I'm here now.

I knew if anypony could reach you, it would be him. He deserves to know what's going on.
Y-you told my brother?

Please tell me the truth, Applejack...

Im- Im not strong at all, Big Mac. Im as weak as a blade of grass.

It started with one hard cider to forget the pain, and before I knew it I was guzzlin' em down almost nonstop. And I'd get so angry, it felt so good being angry, lettin' out my pain freely like that but I-

I hurt Applebloom.
She's been so frustratin' to take care of and I just lost it and I'm sure she hates me now, I don't deserve to be her big sis...!

I don't know what to do anymore, nuthin' has a point, I got nuthin' to work for.

... Let the farm go.

You and Applebloom need to come with me to Appleloosa, start fresh.

We can always come back in the future but this place has too many bad memories. In Appleloosa I can look out for both of you.
Big Mac_

. Maybe it really would be best to leave.. Every good memory here has turned sour

If that's what will help you feel even a little better, I support your decision

I'm... sorry for how I've been treatin' you, Twilight.
I'm glad you were able to find some support..

You were drunk, Applejack... I believe that you're better than that.

I can't be of any use to you, and I'm sorry for that too. I'm in no state to support anypony.
I understand.
NOD
Right now the one you need to support most is you

Thank you... I promise I'll try to come back some day, when I'm good and sober and ready to take back the farm
I wish you the best, Applejack

That was really hard to do. .
But it was the right thing to do.

I'm glad I could be of assistance, I was able to give her a quick scan as well when I sobered her up.

And?
There is trace amounts of chaos magic in her, not nearly as much as The Doctor or Jack however, but I think just enough to influence her behavoir.

Anonymous asked:

Alright that s enough stress testing the doc for one day The time ord is not a computer after all. Give him some space.

His readings are much better now, although the chaos energy couldn't be removed. It was contained, however, for the time being.

How are you feeling, Theta?

the-green-anon asked:

I hope this ends with a win. We could use one right now.

Honestly? I feel... Pretty good, all things considered!

Refreshed is the best way to put it.

We're getting closer to conquering this, I just know it. I will continue my research.

Use these to keep a live reading of the Doctor's energies, he wears the neckpiece and Minuette, you wear the wrist band.

Where do you keep getting these design ideas...?

This is excellent.
Your devices are uh, an interesting choice.

Pulse, pupils, he's alert, he remembers us, and according to this his magic levels are mostly stable...

I still have some negative thoughts, which is understandable, but I don't feel as heavy. Before I always felt tired, but now I'm a little more invigorated.

In fact, I'm not so intimidated by the idea of doing what it takes to save the timeline.

I think with some preperation and rest, I'll be ready to go for it.

And if there's anything we have, it's time for that.

Theta, I'm heading out for bits and bobs. Grab a long shower, use the flower soap? Treat yourself, I'll be back soon.

Oh? Alright, I'll be sure to pamper myself silly while you're out.

Anonymous asked:

Minuette, are you doing alright? All of this has to be stressing you out

I'm well, if a little frayed at the edges. This has been stressful and will continue to be so, but I'm up for the task. I could use a little sleep, though.

Anonymous asked:

Minuette, it's quite generous of you to give so much of your time to the Doctor, especially when you're still trying to live your regular life

I'm glad to have the time to give him. He's been integral to my life.

Anonymous asked:

Can you still regenerate, Patience? And, if you can, would there be a way to somehow give the Doctor some of those extra lives? He's more important in the grand scheme of things than you, after all

What a rude thing to say! Whether or not I'm important in your eyes doesn't change what I do with my life. I'm already giving everything I can.

Anonymous asked

Hey Minuette, how much do you know about Discord? Like, personally

Not much. I know him through his devastation and savagery, he's taken so much from me.

Anonymous asked:

Patience if you have a moment while the Doctor is writing, how are things with you and you know blue?

Things are well. He makes me want to enjoy living. When I'm with him, the universe flows around us like water.

terrance815 asked:

M.nuette, what do you think would happen if you tried scanning the Master for chaos energy?

I would rather spend the time with him enjoying what we can. He's not sick, not like Theta, so I wouldn't even think to scan him.

Anonymous asked

So as far as we know 2/3 timelords are having their lindos hormones act up when they're unconscious. Minuette, could you let us or have someone keep an eye on you when you sleep in case it's happening to you too?

I'll certainly give it some thought!

Anonymous asked:

Minuette, it seemed like you've been stalking the Doctor for a while before confronting him. What all did you witness? What did he leave in his wake?

I wasn't stalking him. I scented him and went to find him. I told him to leave the ponies and find happiness somewhere else...but it was already too late. So we moye forward and fix what's broken.

Anonymous asked

Minuette, you seemed quite adverse to both the Doctor and Master when you first came face to face with them. We know of your relationship with the Master and How you've come to work with the Doctor, but what led you here? Why the change in heart, if that's what this is?

Who else understands me as they do, and who understands them like me? This is a time filled with pain for Theta, guilt for Koschei, and loneliness for me. I can give them both better lives, and in return, I have purpose and love.

Anonymous asked

So where exactly is the TARDIS parked during all this?

I'm currently on a remote island that hasn't been discovered yet.

terrance815 asked:

What are some of the things you are doing while you're recovering? Other than, you know, working on the letter or resting.

I try to keep flying fit so I use the gym and the pool often. I tried some self help books but I read incredibly fast so that didn't take up much time. I'm trying to learn how to cook. I'm able to make a grilled cheese now but that's about it and I still burn them. Turns out you can't really make grilled cheese in the microwave.

Anonymous asked

Now that you're feeling slightly better, what do you th nk of the current desktop theme that you have for the Tardis? Is it still something you like, or would want to change it? I suppose the same goes for your current sonic

It feels a little on the punky side, which is kind of refreshing. I remember our goth phase, so many candles for no good reason. I adore the sonic, it has a sophisticated look to it with the marble texture.

starwaia asked

Doctor, we are so, so proud of you for even being able to discuss the "truth" at the level you did, knowing it has been such a trigger for you before and may still be. You've come so far and we all appreciate that so much. Know that while recovery isn't always a straight line, we see you trying and respect you for that, regardless of perspectives on whatever you may have said or done in the past.

That means a lot to me, really. Your patience, understanding, and support has really kept me going. I'd be in a much darker place were it not for you all.

zegreyus asked
Feeling regret and guilt are the first steps to redemption.
I agree, even if it ultimately wasn't the best choice, I've mostly preferred to give anyone a second chance if they showed any remorse.

the-mysticandmodern-world asked:

Doctor, try and calm yourself. You need to relax and take it easy. Don't do anything drastic to cause yourself to have a relapse

Don't worry, I'm taking as much care of myself as I can before I try to do anything large scale. You know, swiss is definitely meant to be melted.

Anonymous asked

When this is all over, when all possible threats have finally been dealt with, would you want to have a permanent retirement? No adventures, no companions, and no regenerations. Just let your tardis shutdown for good and have your eternal slumber that you've earned?

I don't know... in this life maybe, but if I have more lives I might try something else. I really shouldn't have any lives left, though. And there are no Time Lords to grant me more.

an-immortal asked:

Doctor, what scares you more: an inevitable end or an unknown future?

Endings, always endings... Unknowns can be bad or good, but an end is always an end and endings are difficult.

weeniegenie69 asked:

So, it's been a while since we actually got a chance to just look around the Tardis, and your general living environment. I'm curious how everything looks and feels to you now, compared to under the effects of the curse . I remember you changed the desktop theme a while back. Do you like it how it is now, or have you considered changing things to be more comfortab e for you?

I think the TARDIS desktop is fine as is, I know it doesn't quite fit my more baseline self but I think the reds, blacks, and golds are a classy combination.

On the chance that you do run into Discord again your first priority should be to get him to shut up because it seems words is how he works his way into people's heads

Anonymous asked:
Doctor, while you seem to be processing it better this time, you also seem to not have the more chipper moments you had when you fought back the curse on your own. Finding motivation in the world, like you did then, may be a necessary step to getting rid of the curse

Well, I hope it's coming back more now. For example I appreciate how absolutely stunning this island is. I kind of wish Twilight were here.

Anonymous asked
Are you still concerned about all the unexisted gallopfreyan entities?
You dropped it after the caves even though you seemed to care about it so much beforehand

Honestly, since I discovered the Master was here, I had this feeling he had something to do with their disappearance. It's what he would do if I weren't there to stop him.

Since you don't seem to want to drink anymore, what are you going to do with the bar? You could always delete it, or even consider remodeling the room into something else

Anonymous asked
How about you do a little redecorating to get your mind off the heavy things for a bit? Why not change up the room the bar is in, maybe make it a smoothie bar? Some antioxidants never hurt anyone bexdrey asked:

Ah, yes, the bar lounge... it's such a lovely lounge but there's too much temptation in it. A smoothie bar might be a good idea, and milkshakes.

Here, think of this for a second. You have Neo, Minuette, Twilight, the TARDIS. You're the farthest thing from alone. And you also have us. It's nice to finally see you being kinder to yourself, Doc. Don't give up, know that we believe in you.

Someone has to believe in me, it's hard to believe in myself. I'm so scared of falling again, losing myself, having no control over what I do or who I hurt. It's such a terrifying experience.

Anonymous asked

If you fix the timeline like Twilight asks, what does that mean for Derpy, Jack, Master, Octavia and well everyone? Will they forget everything that's happened as well?

Jack wasn't here before the timeline changed, so there's no reason he'd forget, he's not a part of the timeline. The Master is a Time Lord with a TARDIS, he isn't affected by timeline alterations unless it's his direct timeline being altered. Octavia might forget, she might not have been on the TARDIS long enough to be excluded from the timeline. And Derpy... ...she'll remember. She wasn't changed by the timeline.

So doctor what did you think when Prime Twilight Sparkle became the new ruler of Equestria?

I thought it was very inspiring. I didn't really know her then but I'd heard her story and I remember thinking I'd love to go on one adventure with her... We've been on dates but never an adventure.

Anonymous asked:

One name I noticed hasn't been brought up since your trip to Twilight's is Octavia. General thoughts on the whole situation with her? I personally don't like her, but I have enough reason to believe you aren't completely done with your run ins with her dont take this the wrong way but its odd how confident you are that you're going to stop the Master if he becomes too much of a threat. I'm not sure how well that passion is going to translate if you relapse again. Its good to see even that little glimmer of it back, regardless you're still a good man.

She reminded me a lot of Christina De Souza, a thief I met in my 10th life. A lot of trouble, definitely a bad influence, and no good for me in any capacity. A woman like that should never have access to time travel.

Anonymous asked

Do you have any interest in reconnecting with the Master? Most people are focused on Derpy and Jack since you were friends with them before during your time in the ponyverse, but you were friends with him before too. You both seem to want to put the past behind you, and while he has fucked with you a little in this universe he hasn't done anything bad on a large scale, only tried stunts to keep your attention on him

Hasn't done anything bad on a large scale? He's the only one who could be responsible for entire races and entire planets being erased from existence in this universe, and what he did to Twilight was no small scare incident!

Anonymous asked.
If... If something worse is indeed going to happen to Derpy... Will you try to help her?
Or will you try to keep your distance still? You've met yourself, and you said it yourself, future you looked hope ess. Is it worth try'ng, when all signs point to it being futile?
I don't... I don't know... if I did, I'd make sure she wouldn't know it was me.

Anonymous asked:

Your fear that derpy only cares for you because you're a hero is understandable but it makes me think back to the time when a bunch of other doctors bombarded her with messages and she cried that she only wanted you. If it was only a hero and not you she cared about i think she would've reacted to that situation differently

Of course she only wanted me, I was the first, the one who was with her the whole time. I was HER hero. The others didn't have that.

Anonymous asked:
Hypothet ca question for ya. Doc If Derpy were to change to viewing you as a very close friend, not quite in ove with you but st l hold you near and dear to her heart, would that be more comfortable to you?

I want to say yes, it would have. Now? I don't think she should feel ANY kind of affection for me.

Anonymous asked:

If Derpy got a crush on someone else and still tried to help you get better, would that change how you feel about her?

Anonymous asked

What if Derpy realized how she hurt you and she wants to help you like she should have back then? Would you let her in?

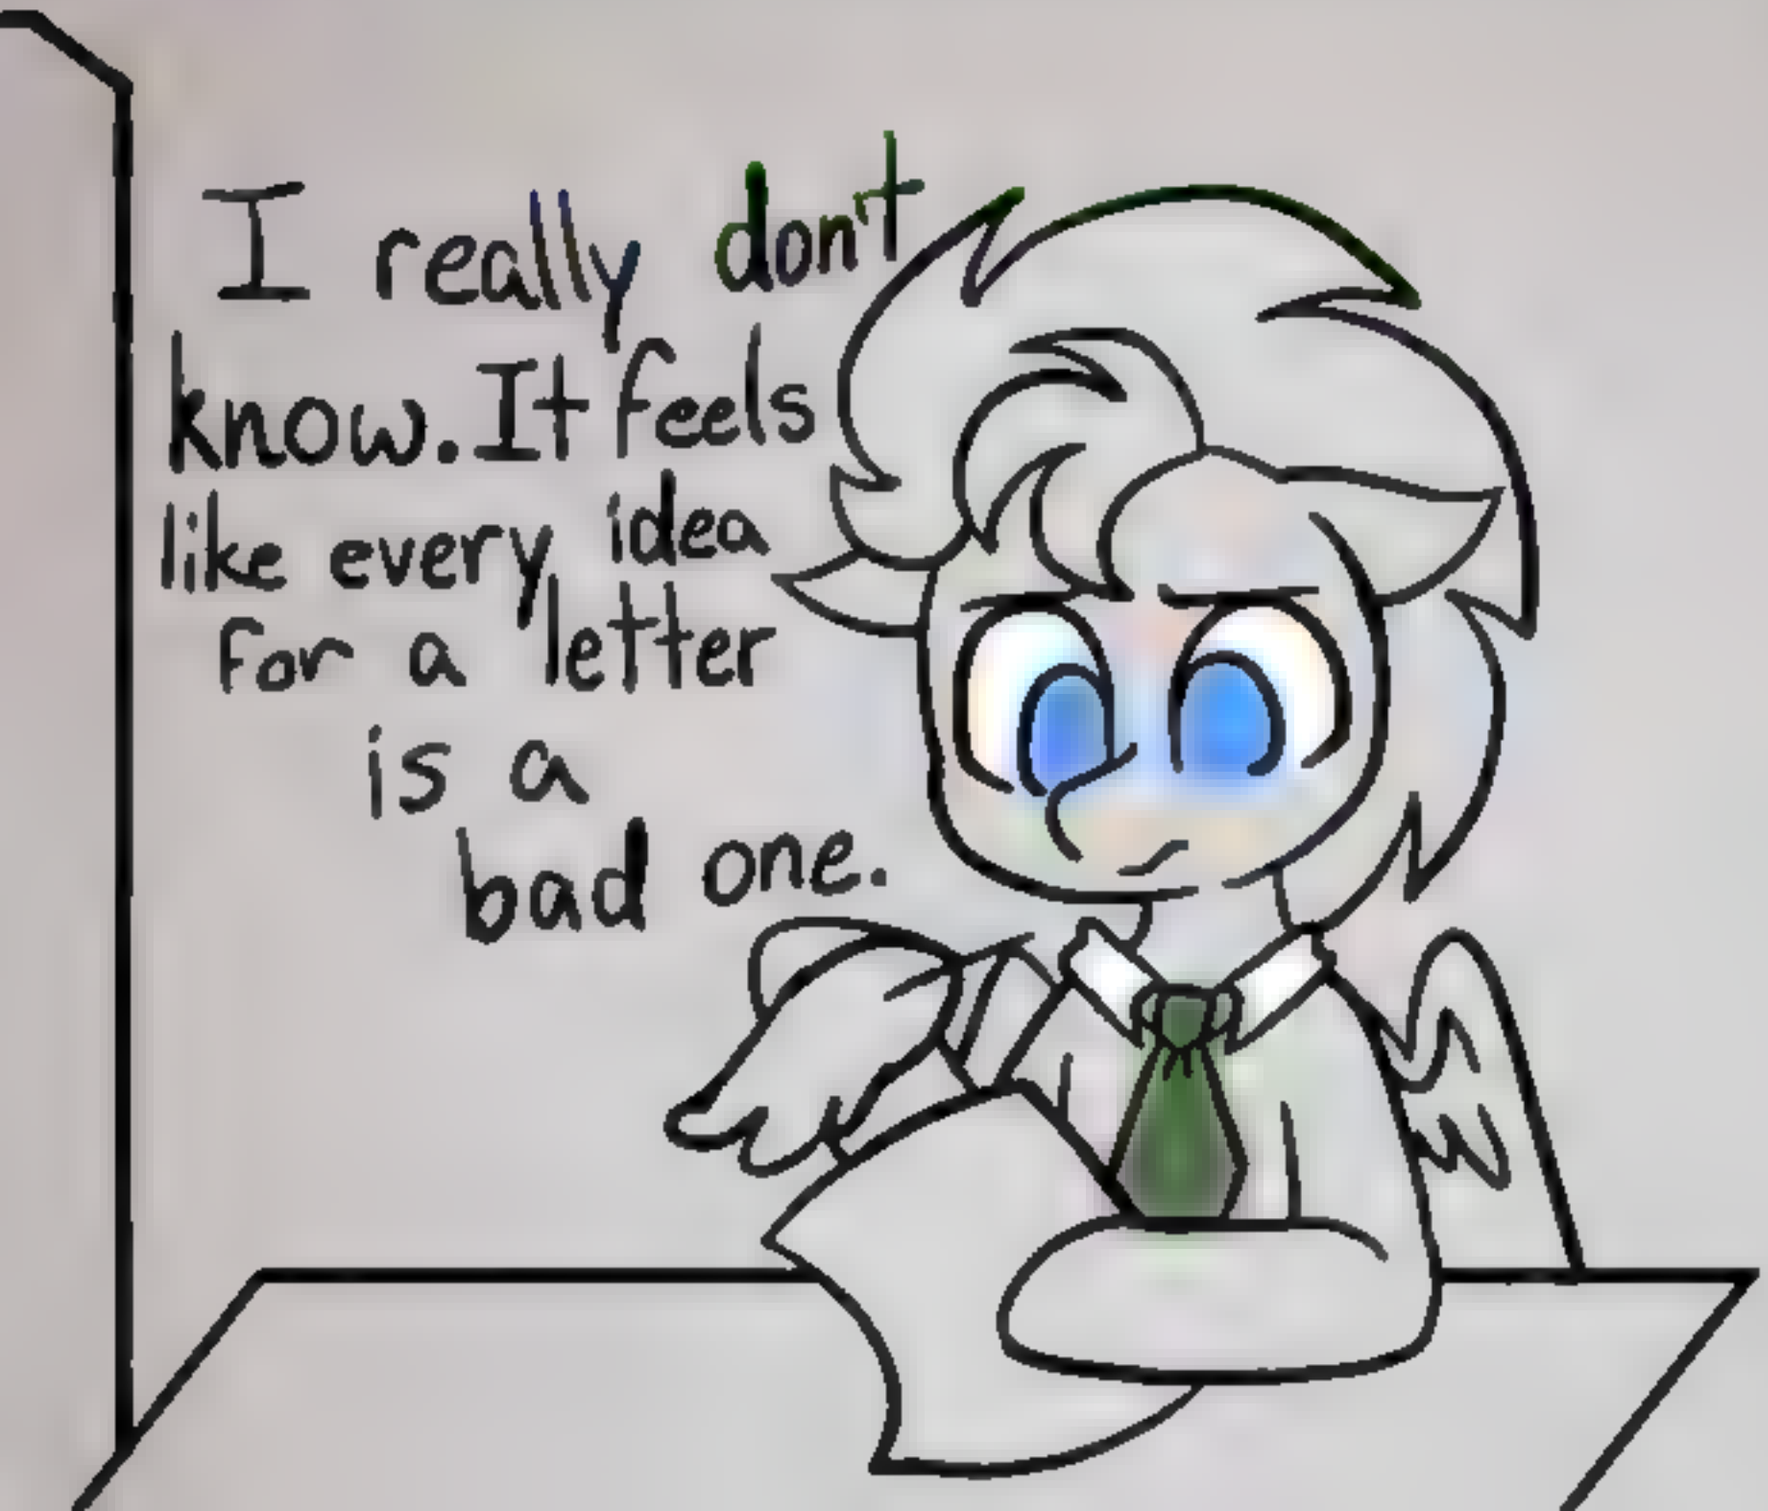
Anonymous asked:

It's okay if you can't put your hoof on it right now, Doctor. For many people it would take years to let go of hard feelings and move forward. You and Ditzy were there for each other sometime ago, as well as you will be there for her in a different time and place. Don't push yourself when you're not feeling right about it.

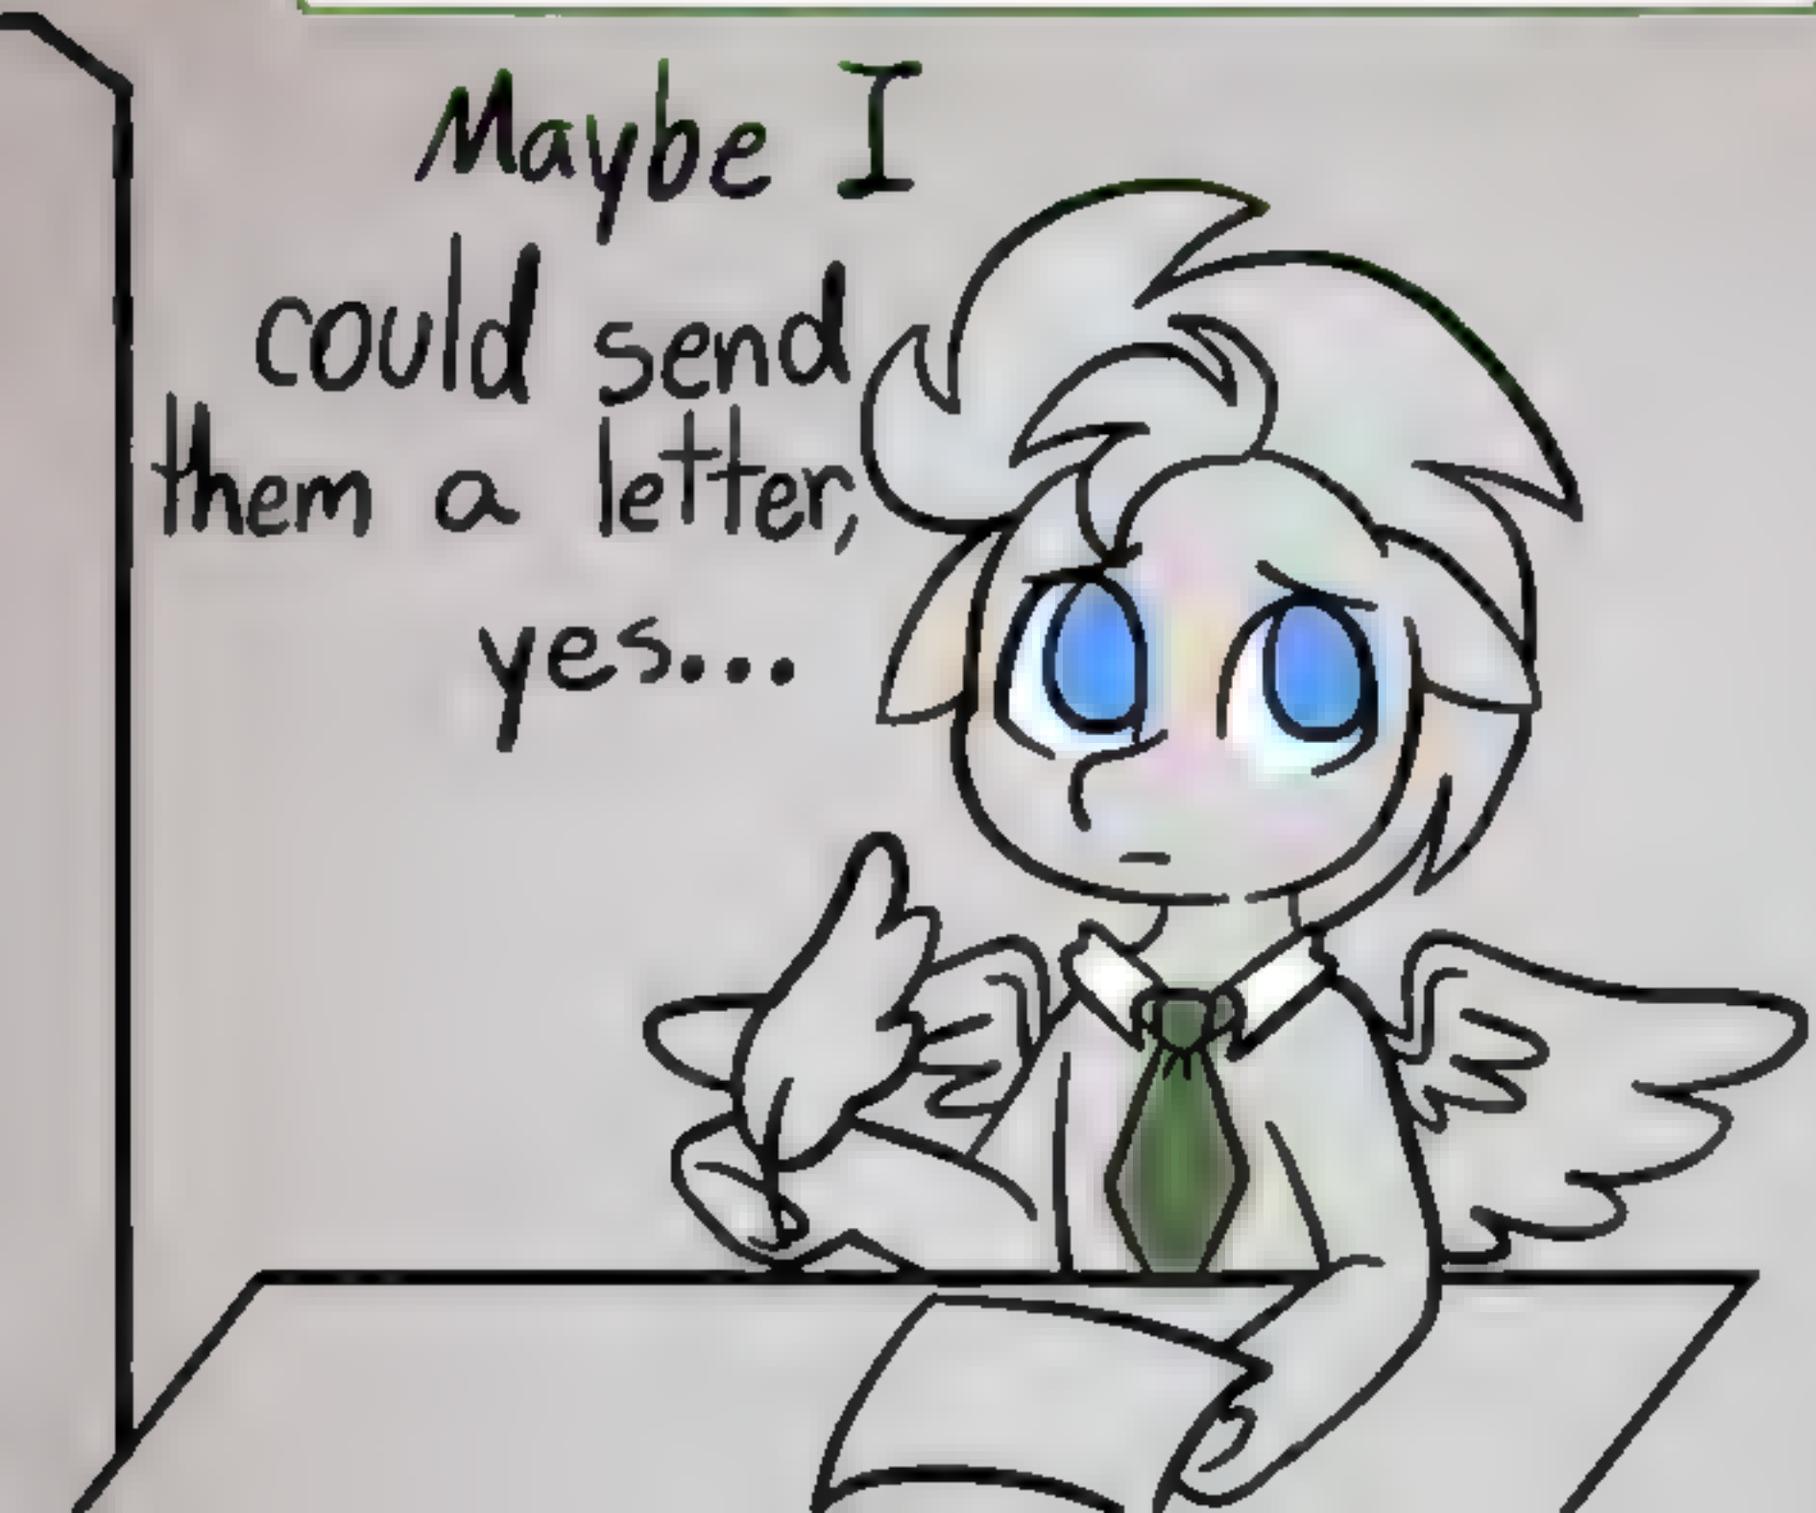
Thank you... There's... there's a lot of healing that needs to happen here, for both of us no doubt...

a-random-ponys asked:

Is there anyone else you want to write a letter to, Doc?



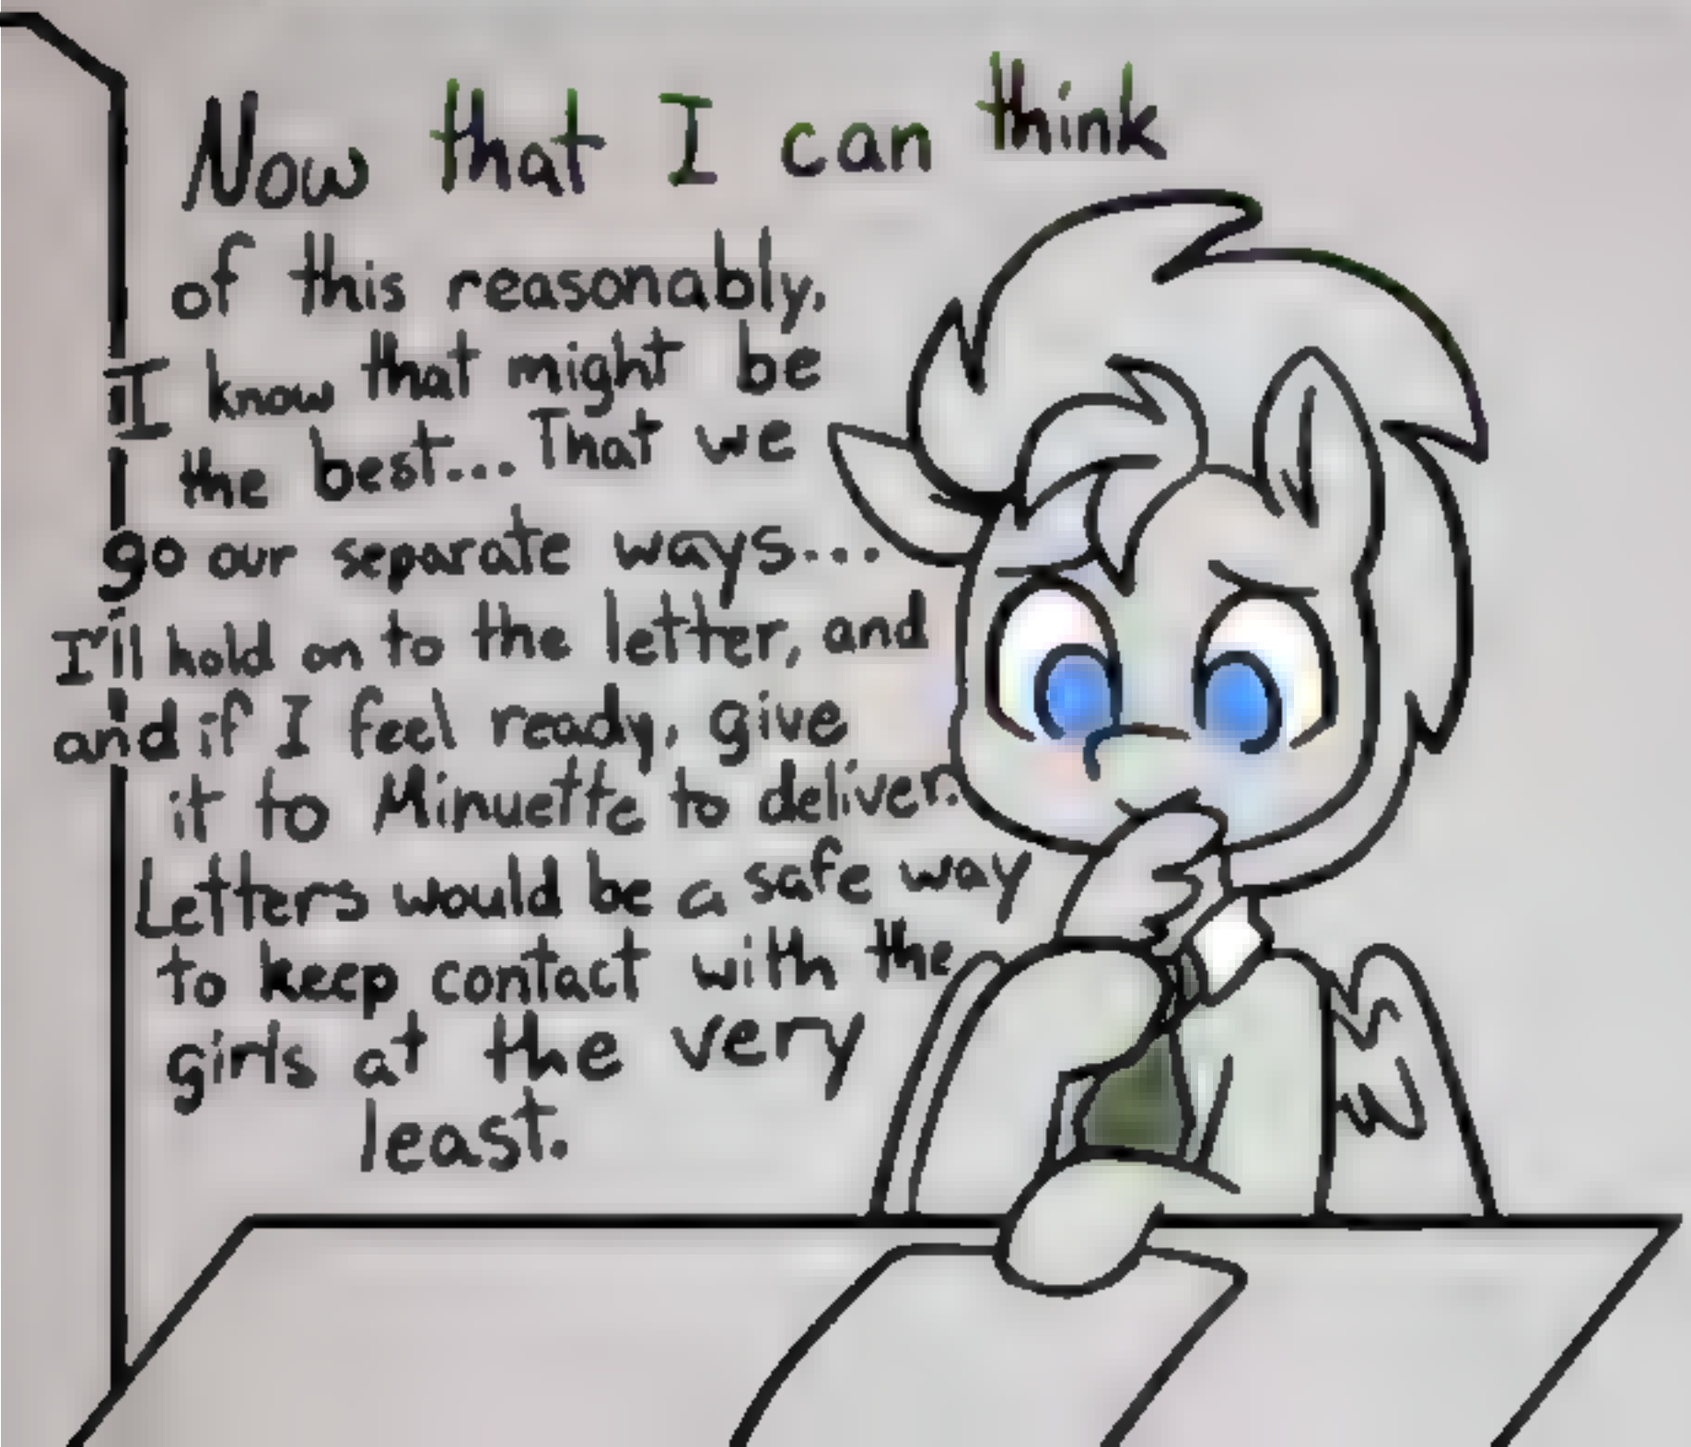
dream-unity asked:
Doctor. . I know you were hurt when Derpy left. But, you have to realize She couldn't put your feelings, or even her feelings, over the safety and well being of Sparkler and Dinky. She had to put the girls above you... Do you think you'll send a letter to them as well?



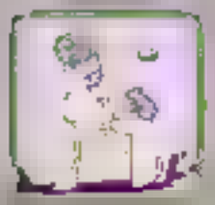
avariyalitersoutcodeauscreater asked:
I think you should apologize to Derpy's children.
See now, this is something I actually want to do, easier to write, but, maybe not meant to be sent.
Not yet.

midna-magic asked:

Honestly doc. You don't have to let Derpy back in. Let her help with the curse, get closure for the both of you, then go your separate ways for good. Yes you hurt her, but she also hurt you. Not in the same way or same amount, but it leaves its own kind of scars. You don't have to help or be there for the kids either, they're fine with just their mom. Maybe write them a letter too, though? Give tips for if your blood is a bit too strong in their veins. The best part of being so long lived is being able to pass on your lessons to those that come after you so they don't have to go through the same. But you don't have to be there in their lives to do it. Give the letter to Twi or Min. Or upload it onto Neo.



Now that I can think of this reasonably, I know that might be the best... That we go our separate ways... I'll hold on to the letter, and and if I feel ready, give it to Minuette to deliver. Letters would be a safe way to keep contact with the girls at the very least.



weloudfollower asked

You should ask Minuette to give it to Derpy. After all, if you send it with your name on it, I have the feeling that either Warden or Dinky will get rid of the letter as soon as they spot it.

The idea of Derpy reading it terrifies me but she is probably the best way to make sure the girls read its contents.

Anonymous asked:

will you ever tell derpy who brew those bubbles?

No, I don't think I will...
Something tells me it would be too painful, for whatever reason I do it.
I still have my wings though, so I don't have to worry about it yet.

Anonymous asked:

Can't talk, can't fight, can't even write a letter. If I were you, Doc, I'd just regenerate now and pray your thirteenth incarnation is just the tiniest bit more competent.

I know this isn't much, it's just a first draft and it's probably terrible, but I'll keep working on it. I want to do this now while I can.

Dearest Dinky
and Sparkler...

Anonymous asked
So questions that relate to your identity, or fears about it strengthen the curse . let's stop talking about YOU, then, and talk about someone else! How does it feel having Minuette in the T.A.R.D.I.S. with you? Is she good company?
It's been amazing in so many ways, not only is Minuette from the other universe but she's a time lady and one I was very close to. I haven't really had something like that in far far too long... I thought I'd never have it.

Anonymous asked:

Hey doc how does it feel to be around females now you're over having sex. You are over it right

the-green-anon asked:

You know doc, you talk about how you re not the same man, but what if Mnette s equally not the same woman you fa len for, why not try for another first kiss as the new yous? Wouldn't that be just cute and wholesome? Just daydream on the thought if nothing else .. . think you two could make things work again. I've got hope and shipping goggles on!

Anonymous asked

You're not the same man you were, and she isn't the same woman you knew Try not to get any more tangled in the web of love than you already are between the other women in your life, at least not now

She's never stopped being an incredible woman! Haha...! She's been amazing for me but she's probably matured far beyond my antics... But... it could be nice...

jasoniswhatnot asked:
Hey Doctor, you don't think that Minuette is with somepony now, don't you?
No, no, surely not!
She would have told me!

Now then, I need to pick her up.

I missed you! I think I did rather well for myself while you were out.
That's wonderful! Tell me all about it?

I managed to write some apology letters, but I'm still not sure I should send them.
Not yet anyways.
That's progress; either way. Look over them once you've taken a day away from them

And I can cook! Small easy things. But I know now not to use half a jar of mayonnaise for a grilled cheese.
That's wonderful, real growth! I hope you enjoy cooking, it's fulfilling and filling.

That's a busy day for you; it was a good idea for me to step out. You're working hard and getting yourself together!

zillasafe asked:
Doctor, this is progress! Even if you won't reveal the whole truth, you've still presented an issue that we can work towards solving. Can you determine how and why exactly your presence is damaging? Maybe you can fix it so Discord can't continue to exploit it.

I... I know some details of it but I can't explain it comfortably. The best I can say is that chaos energy isn't just inside me, it follows me. Either Discord must be stopped, or something needs to negate the chaos.

Anonymous asked:

But Doctor... what if someone already knows about you damaging the universe? If you know how it's happening, you could figure out how to stop it without having to resort to drastic measures.

Don't you think I've tried to think of solutions? The best thing I could come up with was to avoid going anywhere as much as possible. I'm sure there are plenty out there who if they knew what my presence does, they'd find no other option but to destroy me.

Doctor, Do you think if you ask Jack he'll help you repair Twilight's timeline or is you relationship to far gone?
I think when Jack holds a grudge, it's hard to change his mind. He'd want to repair the timeline, but not with me.
Now, don't immediately assume that. He may not be as indifferent to your struggles as you think, and you'll never know until you ask.

Anonymous asked:
After getting the timeline sorted out, do you plan to keep adventuring or is this going to be your last run?
Oh...oh that's a big question. There's no right or wrong answer, Theta, and, as long as you're alive, you can always change it.
This... may be my last go. Maybe not forever. But for a long time. I'll still travel, but I'm not going to get involved in things if I can help it.

Anonymous asked:

When you're able to fix everything what will happen to this timeline? What's going to happen to Twilight? What about your girls?

Anonymous said

Would fixing the timeline cause Sparkler and Dinky to unexist? It's hard to imagine that you bought them to Ponyville before the Pinky incident

Since Twilight was rooted to the timeline when it changed, she will and should change with it. Her memories of me are not worth more than her true life with her friends. The girls were born on the TARDIS, outside the timeline, nothing will happen to them.

reggiebunny asked:
So now that you've calmed down a bit, gotten your head on straight, and worked through some of your feelings. what are you ready to do to fix the time ine?
I'm ready to come up with a plan, and carry it out as soon as possible. What about you, Minuette?
Absolutely. We've time for rest but not dawdling

Anonymous said

Chariots Chariots Doctor would stopping Pinkie from finding the mirror poo work? Or are you going to be hunting the stars for your answers?

The pinkie clones event was on a large enough scale to be a fixed point in time, trying to undo it would be very very risky and goes against the true timeline. There would be a lot of resistance if we tried to push it.

nitethekitten said
Maybe first you can go back and observe the trial to see what the "trick" the clone played was? If you have a better idea you could probably formulate a better plan, then go back again to do the fixing?
Hm, that's not a great idea either, if we witness the event we'll become a part of it and wouldn't be able to fix it without crossing our own timelines and creating a paradox. It would be best to ask Twilight what she remembered from that event.

Anonymous asked:
Doctor, maybe the next thing you should do is try and figure out who's been putting the barriers up? After all, with the barriers of certain universes up, that will prevent the universes from bleeding into other universes. Although, if you do try and search for them, there's a chance that the barriers of this universe might be put up by them, causing you to be unable to return.

The barriers are being put up from this universe, I can tell that at least, and they're honestly a good thing. Someone besides me is patching things up and I'm not going to stop them from doing that.

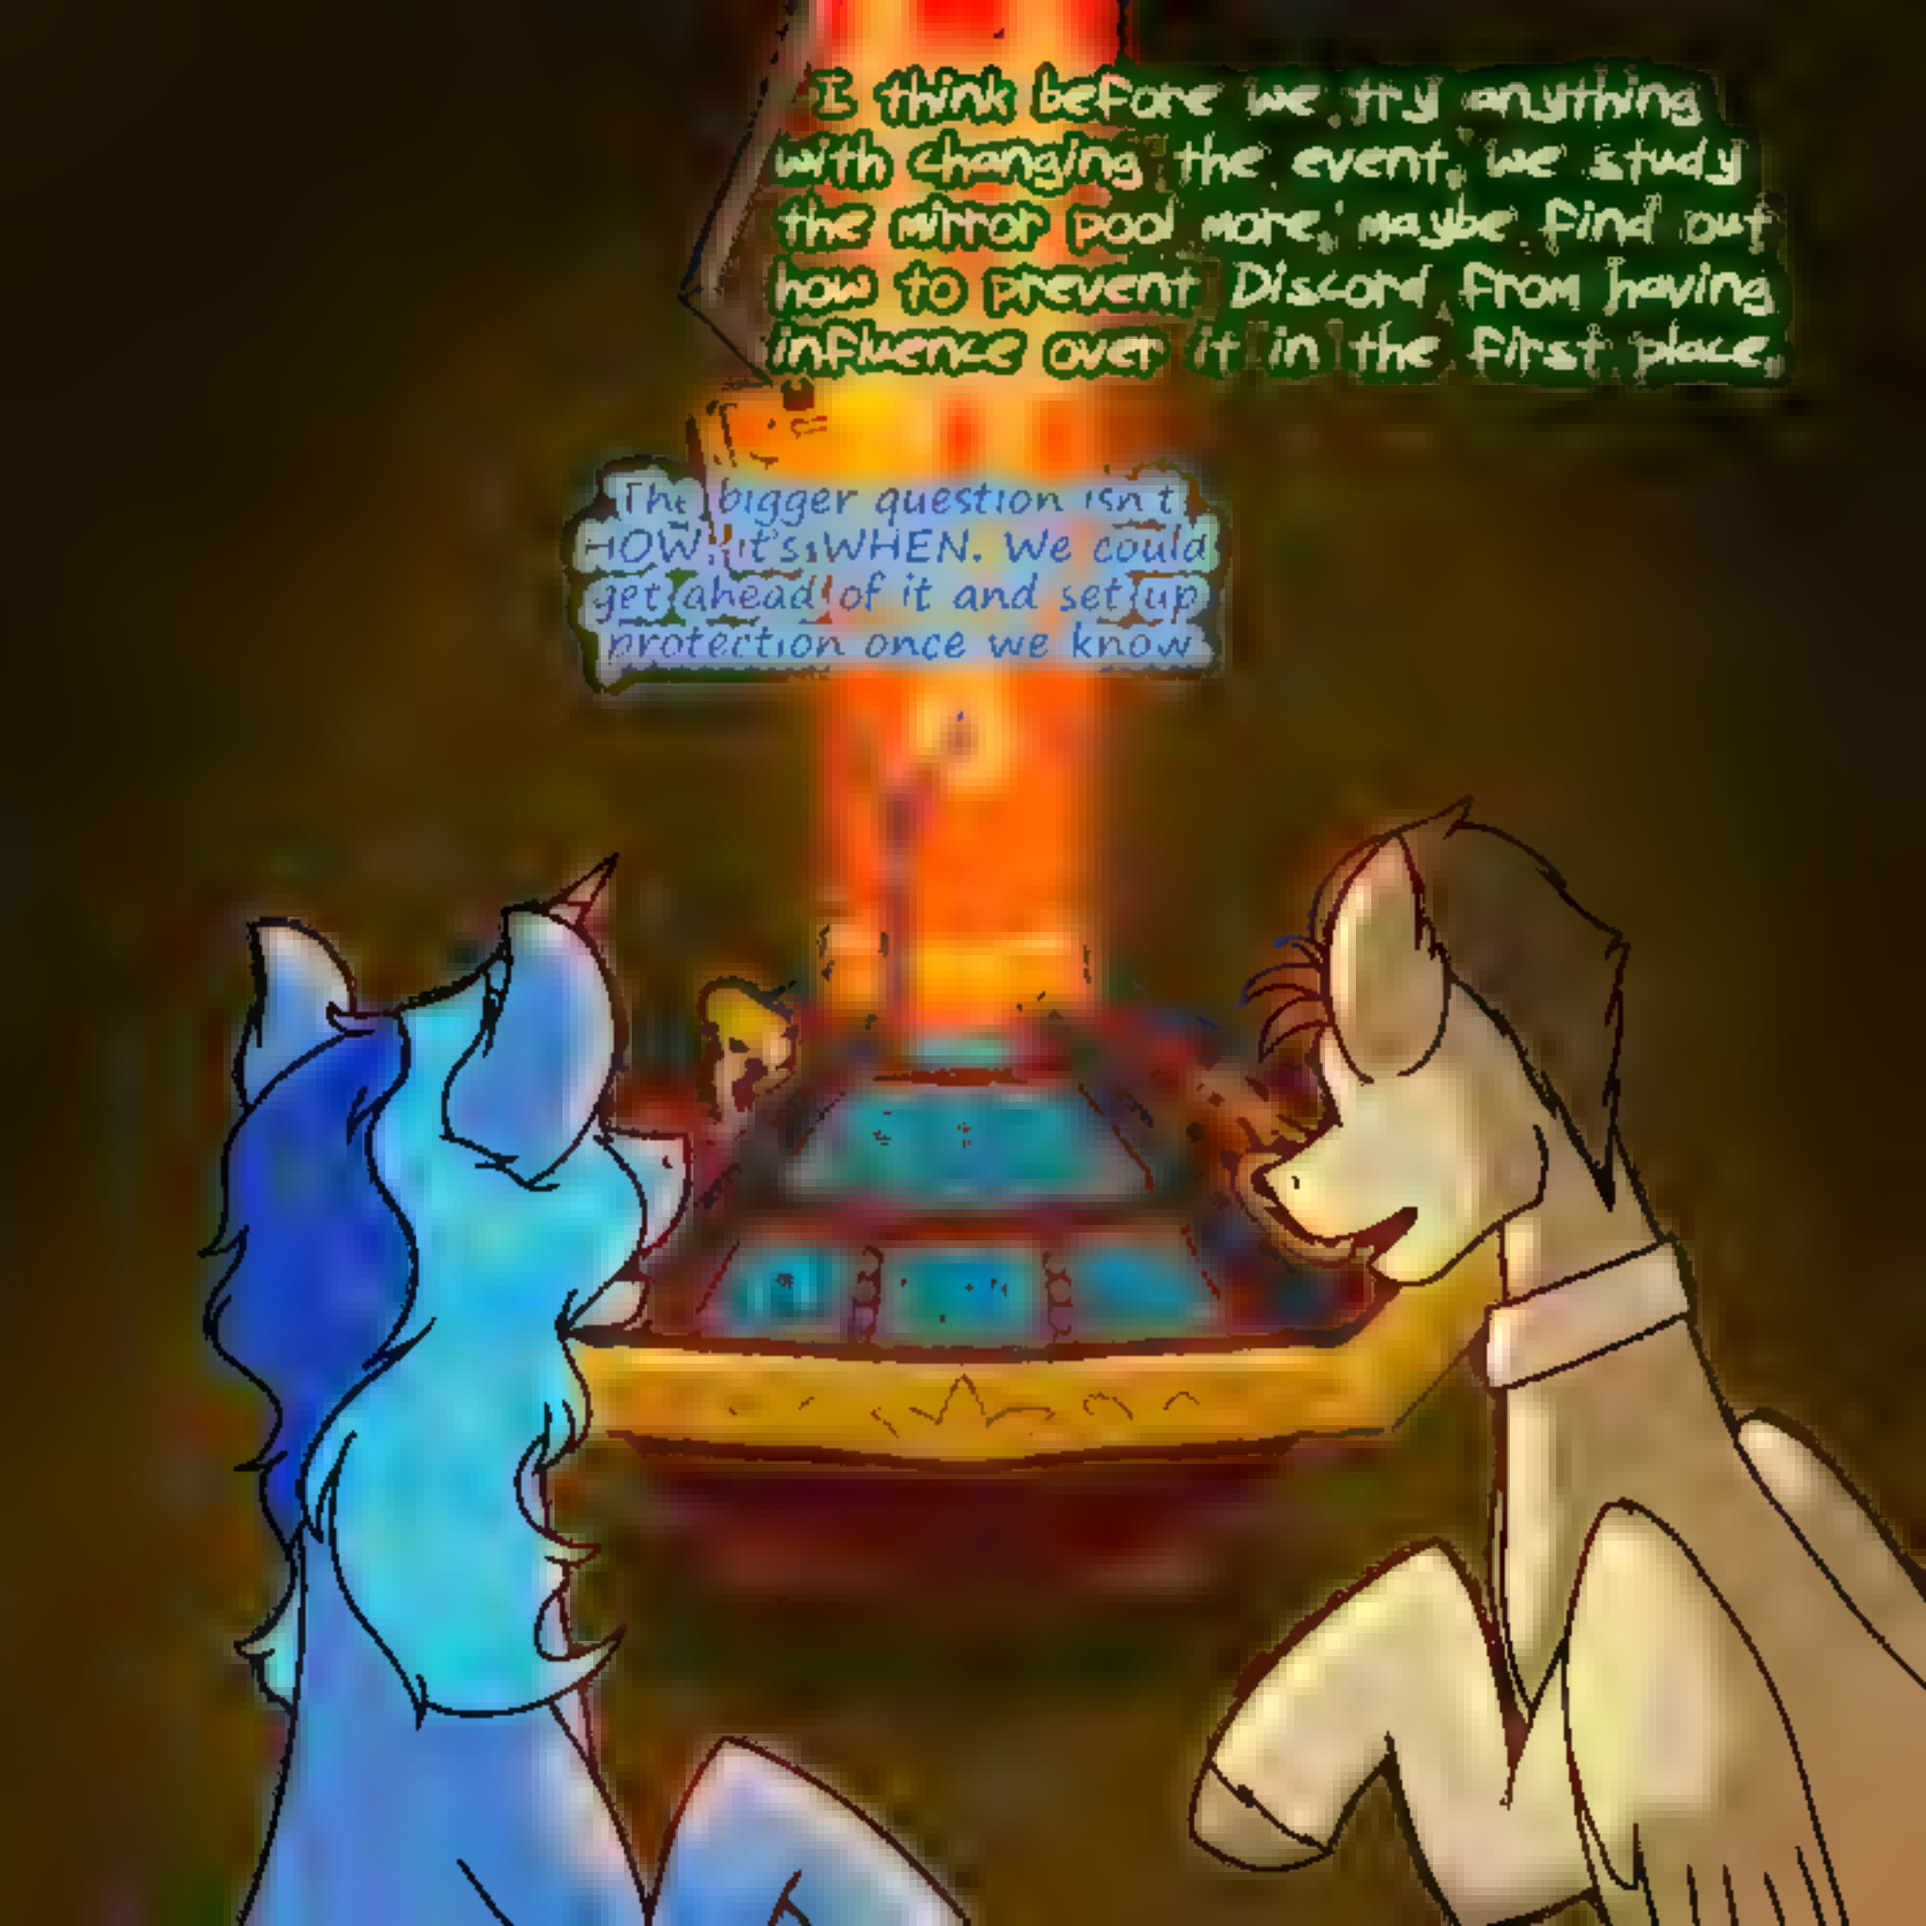
The changelings are kinda in debt to you for taking all your love. Maybe they could pay you back in a way by doing something for you? Tantamount could prove useful as he has enough of your memories to have convinced himself that he is you at one point in time

That's something to consider. If I can think of a way for the changelings to help I'll try to ask for it, but right now is the time to observe and study before taking action.

Anonymous asked:
Originally, when Twilight did the test with the Pinkie clones, it was down to the last two and Rainbow Dash distracted the clone. Something must have gone wrong at this point.

Excellent, that's one way to narrow it down. It's safe to assume the real Pinkie was distracted somehow before the clone was, maybe the clone even caused the distraction. Discord took advantage of the fatal flaw of this test.

Maybe if we changed the test to something more accurate...
Well, she'd be younger than the original; you could cut her in half like a tree and count the rings
Or um, just... a quiz, maybe?

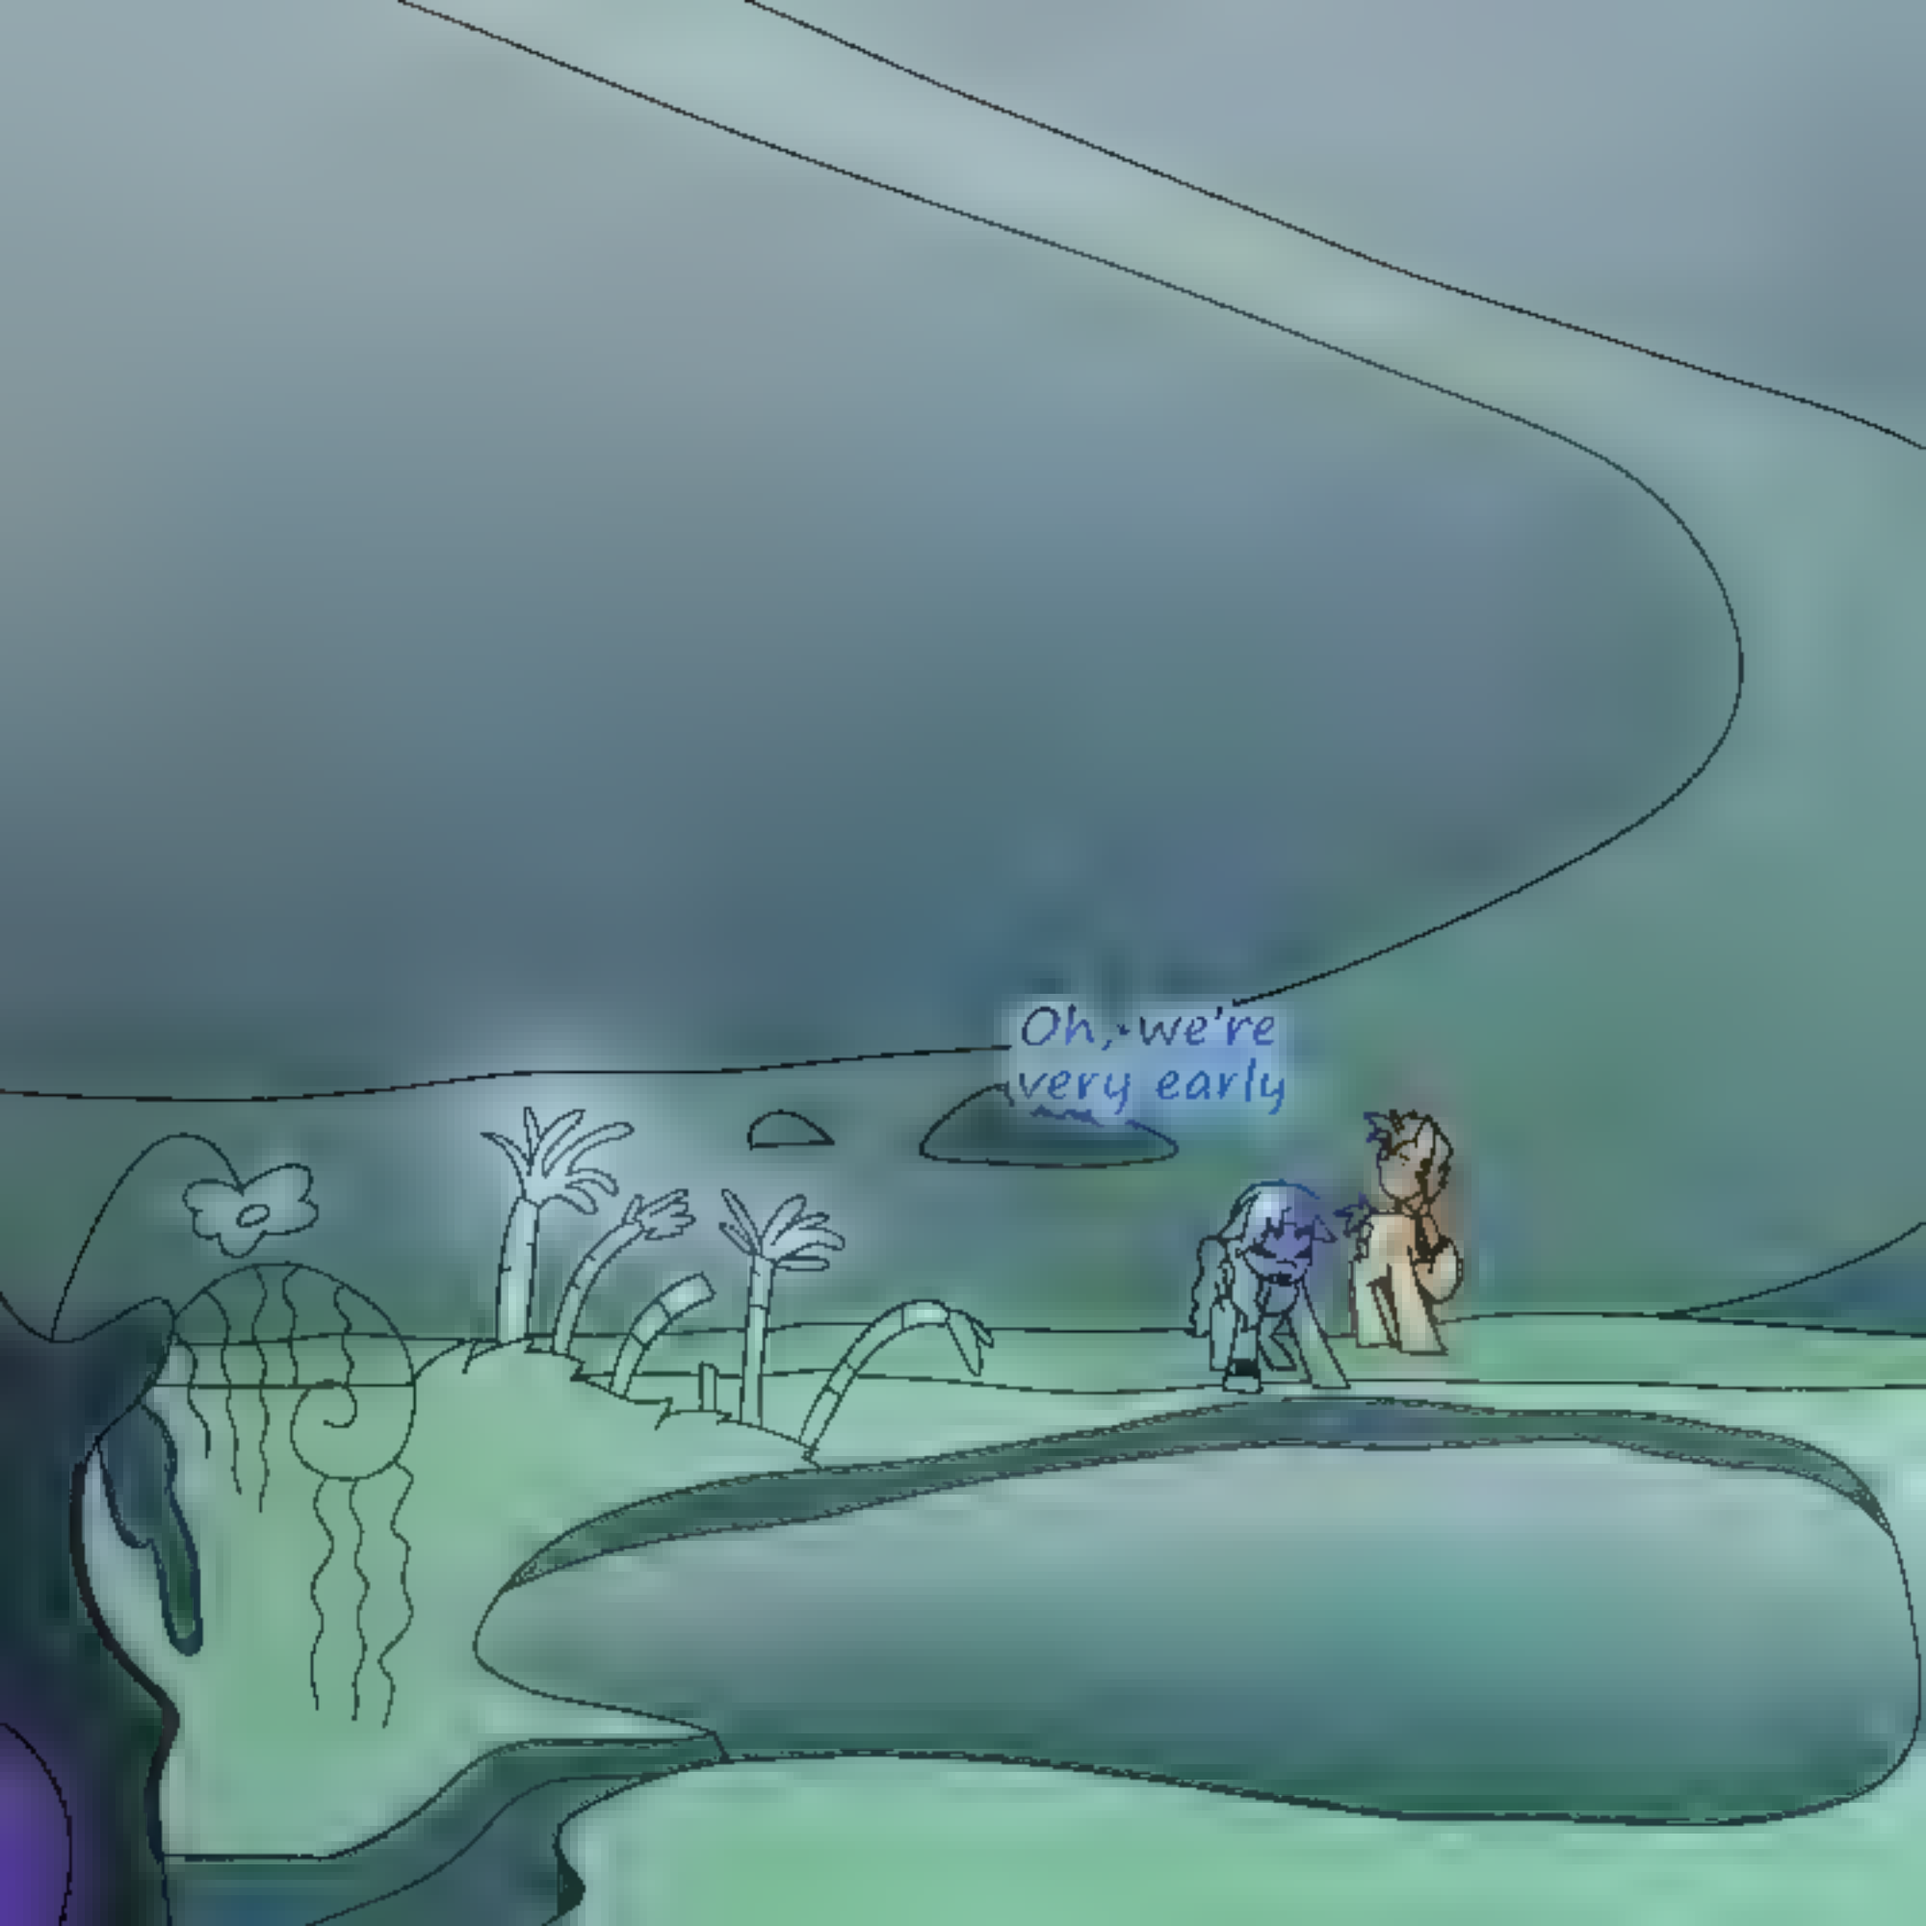


I think before we try anything with changing the event, we study the mirror pool more, maybe find out how to prevent Discord from having influence over it in the first place.
The bigger question isn't HOW, it's WHEN. We could get ahead of it and set up protection once we know.

VWORRP VWOORRP

This is pretty far back, about a decade after the pool formed. Let's examine its properties to see if it has its magical elements yet.

WRRECCC



Oh, we're very early

You're right, according to these readings there's only trace amounts of magic here, the pool is still in its infancy with no influence from Discord. We're in the right time for this.
Oh, thank goodness! We really do work well as a team!

Even if I don't read the manual?
...I guess
SIGH

We always did and always will, I feel. I missed you, you know. You've been so good for me, so understanding and willing to push when needed. And you say all the right things.
You're always game for anything, it'd be boring without you!

This has all been so difficult for me, being in one of the worst states I've ever been in. I lost all confidence in myself but you've really reminded me of who I want to be the most, and nothing else should matter.
You have a plan and a path. You can do this, and I have utter and complete faith in that Theta, you're shaking. Are you alright? Did something happen while I was away? I noticed the chaos tracker spiked for a moment.

I was just in my head a little too long there but I think I'll be alright, especially with you here.
I'll take you at your word, but you can't stop me from worrying Do we need to take a break?

You know, yes... that would probably be a good idea, I suppose I'm not in the best place at the moment, and maybe we should talk.

Patience, I... I'm really not sure how to bring this up...

SIGH

Can we dance?
I might be able to get
it out better that way.
Less thinking.

It's been an awfully long time since you asked me to dance, and if it will calm your head then I'll certainly accept.

So after we've dealt with the Mirror Pool, what are you planning on doing?

I was going to step out for a few minutes once the dust settled. I have a meeting at Canterlot Castle.

I see. What is it you do these days anyhow, outside of helping me?

Not very much, honestly. I make sure to see something I've never seen, I go and eat something special. I engage in small actions to make this long life more rich. I'm close to my end, Theta.

What? Why didn't you tell me that? Thats incredibly important...!

You're not responsible for my personal struggles, not when you're healing.

So who is? The one you're meeting with, perhaps?

Er...quite.

So it sounds like you've found someone quite special then, that's good.

It's been a very fortunate road I've been able to travel. It's been good to return to those places in my heart again.

I really struggle with those feelings these days, I lost my capacity for it for so long that when I do feel it, it's like it takes me over and I grow desperate for it. I would think I felt one way, but then I feel it even stronger another and suddenly question what I felt before.

That's common when you're recovering like this, Theta.

I want to be happy for you, Patience. I really do. But it's so hard for me to wrap my head around this one, and I don't want it to be true. But it is, isn't it?
